The Book of Awakening

20th Anniversary Edition

Having the Life You Want by Being Present to the Life You Have

Mark Nepo

Foreword by Jamie Lee Curtis

- For 20 years, The Book of Awakening has been the go-to guide for cultivating joy and freedom in the face of hardship—over one million copies sold!
- This new edition includes a new preface by the author, a new foreword by Jamie Lee Curtis, and new endorsements.
- West Coast author tour, September 2020: Agape Church, Book Passage, Powell's, and more.

A new edition of the #1 New York Times bestseller by Mark Nepo—one of the finest spiritual guides of our time.

Philosopher-poet and cancer survivor Mark Nepo opens a new season of freedom and joy—an escape from deadening, asleep-at-the-wheel sameness—that is both profound and clarifying. His spiritual daybook is a summons to reclaim aliveness, liberate the self, take each day one at a time, and savor the beauty offered by life's unfolding. Reading his poetic prose is like being given second sight, exposing the reader to life's multiple dimensions, each one drawn with awe and affection.

Among the millions who have been inspired and comforted by The Book of Awakening over its 20-year history are Jamie Lee Curtis, Oprah Winfrey, Melinda Gates, and Steven Tyler—who all feel this is one of the finest spiritual guides of our time.

“There was one book that transformed my life and that book is The Book of Awakening by Mark Nepo. The river of life is wide and the journey we make together is made so much more beautiful, important, and moving when our lives are linked by this book.” —Jamie Lee Curtis, from the foreword

“Mark Nepo's writing creates echoes in our hearts of what is true and of what we most cherish. Keep The Book of Awakening close by and dip into it whenever you want to nourish your spirit.” —Tara Brach, author of Radical Acceptance and Radical Compassion

And the Prophet Said

Kahlil Gibran's Classic Text with Newly Discovered Writings

Edited by Dalton Hilu Einhorn

Foreword by Daniel Ladinsky

- A new gift edition of The Prophet that includes over 150 newly discovered poems, aphorisms, and epigrams.
- The Prophet has sold over 2 million copies and been translated into over 200 languages.
- Kahlil Gibran remains one of the bestselling authors of all time.

Newly discovered writings from the author of the classic bestseller The Prophet.

Originally published in 1923 by Knopf, The Prophet is a teaching fable that has been cherished by millions for nearly 100 years. It is a book of wisdom providing guidance for readers on how to live a life imbued with meaning and purpose.

What is especially exciting about this edition is the inclusion of 150 newly discovered Gibran pieces buried in the Gibran/Haskell archives at the University of North Carolina that have never been published until now.

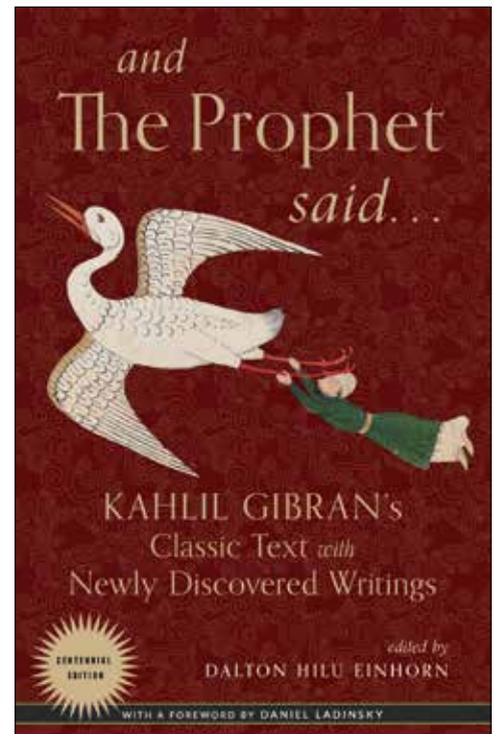

The new material is classic Gibran—his words have an immediacy and depth that will appeal to the millions who have read The Prophet.

From the book:

Wisdom without beauty is like a house without a roof.

In faith we can move all mountains. Now let us move the mountains in our souls and leave those of the earth to their serene majesty.

One of the other secrets of art is in expressing what the other person does not dare to express, or does not know how to express.

Utterly Wicked

Hexes, Curses, and Other Unsavory Notions

Dorothy Morrison

Foreword by Amy Blackthorn, author of Blackthorn's Botanical Magic

- One of the grand dames of the modern witchcraft movement and one of its most perennially popular authors of more than twenty books, with cumulative sales over 200,000 copies.

Protect yourself (and maybe indulge in a little payback) with practical instructions from one of the most beloved figures of Wicca and the Neo-Pagan movement.

Hexes, curses, and other unsavory notions—most magical practitioners won't even discuss them. Why? Because they'd much rather find a positive solution that benefits all concerned. And there's nothing wrong with that.

Occasionally, though, our problems are such that nothing in the positive solution arena will handle them. It's time to make a decision to stand tough, be strong, and take definitive action to defend ourselves. And if you're ready to do that—if you're ready to own that action and take responsibility for it—then Utterly Wicked is for you.

About the Author

Dorothy Morrison is the award-winning author of numerous books on the ancient arts and their application to modern life. She lives a magical life near New Orleans with her husband, Mark, and their black Lab, Dixie. Visit her at www.dorothymorrison.com.

Spellcrafting

A Beginner's Guide to Creating and Casting Effective Spells

Gerina Dunwich

- Gerina Dunwich is the well-known author of over a dozen books on astrology, Wicca, and various occult subjects; for readers of Skye Alexander's The Modern Guide to Witchcraft, Juliet Diaz's Witchery, and Jaya Saxena and Jess Zimmerman's Basic Witches.

A practical and accessible guide with everything you need to know to craft and cast spells that really work.

A spell, which some refer to as a Witch's prayer, is something nearly anyone can learn. There is no need to be initiated into any mystery cults, swear devotion to any god or goddess, denounce any religion, or wear the label of a Witch or Wiccan in order to craft a spell. But among the things that are required is an open mind, the will, patience, and courage to follow what is in your heart, and the maturity to take responsibility for your actions. Designed for the novice to intermediate student, Spellcrafting provides all you need to craft and cast spells that really work.

About the Author

Gerina Dunwich is a professional astrologer, occult historian, and New Age author, best known for her books on Wicca and various occult subjects. She is the founder of the Paranormal Animal Research Group, which investigates cases of alleged hauntings by animal spirits.

Orishas, Goddesses, and Voodoo Queens

The Divine Feminine in the African Religious Traditions

Lilith Dorsey

- The author's magickal training includes numerous initiations in Santeria, Haitian Vodoun, and New Orleans Voodoo.
- Each chapter focuses on a particular goddess and offers herbal treatments, practices, and recipes to bring that goddess into your life.

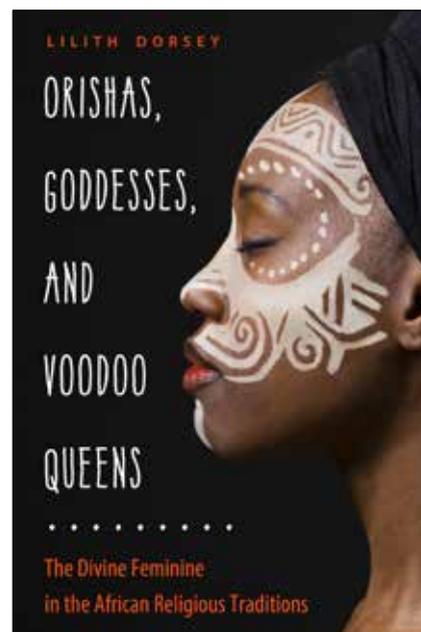

An inspiring exploration of the goddesses of the West African spiritual traditions and their role in shaping Yoruba (Ifa), Santeria, Haitian Vodoun, and New Orleans Voodoo.

Throughout Africa and beyond in the diaspora caused by the slave trade, the divine feminine was revered in the forms of goddesses like the ancient Nana Buluku; water spirits like Yemaya, Oshun, and Mami Wata; and the warrior Oya. The power of these goddesses and spirit beings has taken root in the West. Marie Laveau, for example, used her magical powers to become the "Voodoo Queen" of New Orleans.

Orishas, Goddesses, and Voodoo Queens shows you how to celebrate and cultivate the traits of these goddesses, drawing upon their strengths to empower your own life. Included are magical spells, rituals, potions, astrological correspondences, sacred offerings, and more to help guide you.

About the Author

Lilith Dorsey, hails from many magickal traditions, including Celtic, Afro-Caribbean, and Native American spirituality. Her traditional education focused on plant science, anthropology, and film at the University of Rhode Island, New York University, and the University of London. Visit her at www.lilithdorsey.com.

The Handbook of Yoruba Religious Concepts (Weiser Classics Edition)

Baba Ifa Karade

- Part of the Weiser Classics Series: essential works that represent the full range of Weiser's publishing program. Each title provides a perfect introduction and trustworthy guide to the subject addressed.
- Sales increase of 30–40% annually of the previous edition.

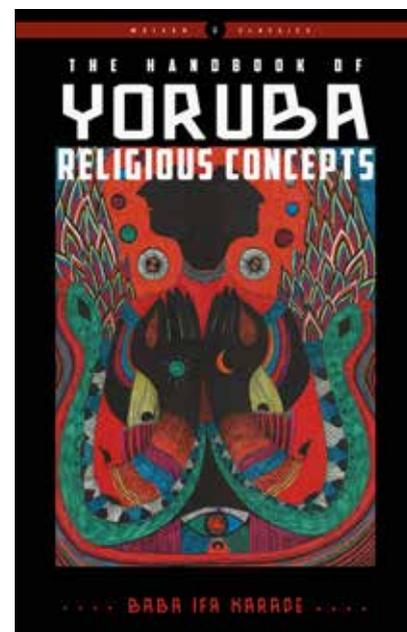

An introduction to the spiritual source of the beliefs and practices that have so profoundly shaped African American religious traditions.

Most of the Africans who were enslaved and brought to the Americas were from the Yoruba nation of West Africa, an ancient and vast civilization. In the diaspora caused by the slave trade, the guiding concepts of the Yoruba spiritual tradition took root in Haiti, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Brazil, and the United States.

Baba Ifa Karade provides an accessible overview of the Yoruba tradition and its influence in the West. He describes the sixteen Orisha, or spirit gods, and shows readers how to work with divination, internalize the teachings of Yoruba, and create a sacred place of worship. Included are prayers, dances, songs, offerings, and sacrifices to honor the Orisha.

About the Author

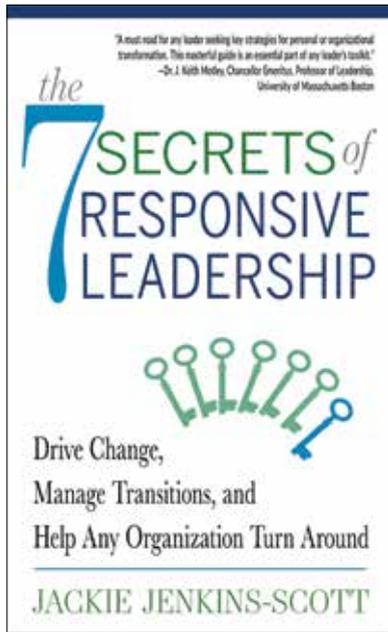

Baba Ifa Karade holds a degree in Africana studies from Rutgers University and has written a number of books about the Yoruba/Ifa culture. He is a keynote lecturer at colleges across the United States and at Orisha conferences throughout the world. Visit him at www.karadenationalarchive.weebly.com.

The 7 Secrets of Responsive Leadership

Drive Change, Manage Transitions, and Help Any Organization Turn Around

Jackie Jenkins-Scott

Leadership and turnaround expert Jackie Jenkins-Scott helps you identify and take advantage of opportunities in any environment.

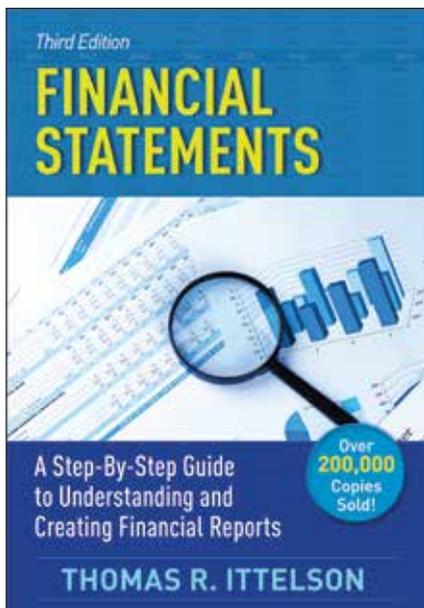

Responsive leadership can thrive anywhere, unlike systematic leadership. Responsive leadership is a living, changing set of traits and skills that adapts to new people and environments. You may have an impressive grasp of how to influence, inspire, and build teams, but you must know how to adapt your abilities to each new organization, or to changes within the organization—new board members, new staff members, new shareholders.

Richly illustrated with stories from the author's decades of experience as a CEO and expert in her field, The 7 Secrets of Responsive Leadership explores how to:

- Take advantage of opportunity
- Turn around an organization
- Compete well by leading with heart
- Value the interconnectedness of people
- Echo one message at a time
- Look for opposition
- Recover quickly

About the Author

Jackie Jenkins-Scott is a nationally recognized leader in senior and executive leadership positions in public health and higher education. She is widely recognized as a transformational leader, helping individuals and institutions achieve high performance and strategic results. Visit her at www.jjsadvising.com.

Lead with Speed

Fire Up Your Team, Power Your Engines of Development, and Make Your Organization Soar

Alan Willett, author of Leading the Unleadable

- Willett’s last book was a 2017 Best Business Book of the Year for SoundView.
- His clients include NASA, General Motors, Hewlett Packard, Intuit, Oracle, and Microsoft.

The speed of the business is the speed of the leader. It’s time to up your game.

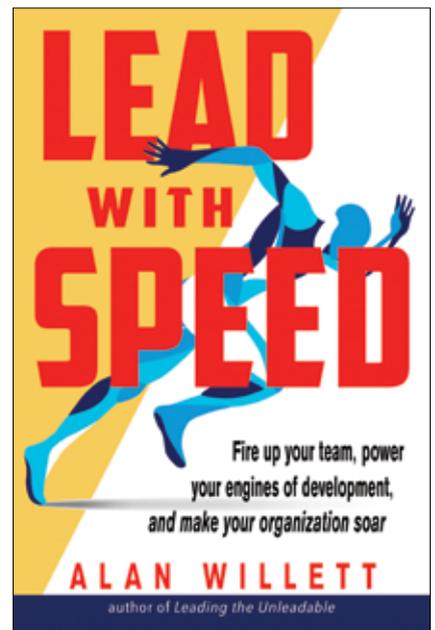

One of the most important questions a leader can ask themselves: “How do I get my teams, my organization to move faster?” That is the challenge that all leaders face and it grows more intense every day. The problem of speed is often disguised by other symptoms, such as “my teams need to take more risks.” The real need is not reckless risk-taking. The real need is for speed.

Lead with Speed will teach leaders to:

- Discern the critical differences between slow and fast projects.
- Get whole groups of people working together to create organizational speed.
- Lead the exceptional few to be the catalyst for accelerating your organization.

About the Author

Alan Willett is an author, consultant, speaker, and expert at enabling leaders, teams, and organizations to take control of the accelerator of speed. His clients include HP, Oracle, Microsoft, NASA, General Motors, Intuit, Cornell University, and more. Visit him at www.alanwillett.com.

Roswell: The Ultimate Cold Case

Eyewitness Testimony and Evidence of Contact and the Cover-Up

Thomas J. Carey and Donald R. Schmitt, authors of Witness to Roswell

- The sequel to the bestseller Witness to Roswell (over 35,000 copies sold); includes exclusive eyewitness testimonies.

Two of the world's leading investigators declare definitively that the Roswell Incident happened and present their closing arguments.

The Roswell Incident is the most hotly debated and investigated UFO crash in history, with a seemingly never-ending stream of evidence and eyewitnesses coming forward even years later. While the government has changed their official story on Roswell more than a dozen times, the witnesses have never recanted. Finally, late in life, people feel safe enough or duty bound to reveal what they witnessed that fateful day.

Roswell: The Ultimate Cold Case brings all-new exclusive eyewitness testimonies to light as well as the following new developments:

- Edgar Mitchell's and Neil Armstrong's connections to Roswell
- Clinton's, Carter's, Goldwater's, and Schiff's connections to the site
- An artist's conception of the impact site with craft and bodies, based on firsthand testimony presented for the first time

About the Authors

Thomas J. Carey is a US Air Force veteran who held a Top Secret security clearance. He has spent the last 23 years investigating the Roswell Incident and published more than 35 articles about it. Donald R. Schmitt is a bestselling author, a former co-director of special investigations at the Center for UFO Studies in Chicago, and a founder of the International UFO Museum and Research Center in Roswell. Exogenesis: Hybrid Humans

A Scientific History of Extraterrestrial Genetic Manipulation

Bruce R. Fenton and Daniella Fenton

Foreword by Erich von Däniken, author of *Chariots of the Gods

- Exogenesis: the hypothesis that life originated elsewhere in the universe and was spread to Earth
- The Fentons' work dovetails off that of von Däniken, Tellingier, and Sitchin
- Author appearances on Ancient Aliens, Coast to Coast AM, and elsewhere

"Exogenesis is a milestone in understanding our past." —Erich von Däniken, author of Chariots of the Gods

Presenting the strongest scientific evidence ever, Exogenesis: Hybrid Humans supports the popular belief that Earth has been visited in prehistory, and goes even further by concluding there is compelling evidence of alien involvement with the human genome. The broader history of possible extraterrestrial contact is explored alongside current events in the subject of alien disclosure, with the result of highlighting evidence of a contact continuum in place since the dawn of humanity. The data brought together suggests that the next stage in human evolution may involve full open contact with the visitors in our lifetimes.

About the Authors

Bruce and Daniella Fenton are a husband-and-wife team who investigate the deepest mysteries of history and science. Bruce is an ancient mysteries researcher, author of The Forgotten Exodus, and founder of ancientnews.net. Daniella is a highly regarded therapist, lifelong experiencer, and professional intuitive with several years of training in Andean shamanism. Visit Bruce and Daniella at www.brucefenton.info.

The Hynek UFO Report

The Authoritative Account of the Project Blue Book Cover-Up

J. Allen Hynek

Foreword compiled by Paul Hynek

- J. Allen Hynek was a leading astronomer and UFO investigator for the Air Force.
- Here Hynek provides authoritative commentary and context for the Project Blue Book files.
- This new edition includes an introduction by the author's son, Paul Hynek.
- History Channel's popular Project Blue Book TV series, now in its second season, is based on Hynek's involvement in this clandestine project.

The ultimate guide to Project Blue Book by a lead astronomer and foremost authority for the US Air Force program to investigate UFO sightings.

Originally released in 1977, this new edition by the world's foremost authority on UFOs distills 12,000 sightings and 140,000 pages of Project Blue Book evidence into a coherent explanation. A US Air Force–sponsored UFO-skeptic for years, Hynek had completely changed his tune by the late 1960s.

The Hynek Report is rational, logical, and realistic, and addresses these questions and more:

- Have UFOs really been reported by every nation across the globe?
- Can all the eyewitness reports simply be fantasy?
- Are we victims of mass hallucination or just plain lies?
- Have close encounters actually occurred?
- Is the government concealing deep secrets at a hidden location?

The Hynek Report is for anyone interested in UFOs, the possibility of extraterrestrial life, and the role of the US government in hiding the truth.

About the Author

Josef Allen Hynek (May 1, 1910–April 27, 1986) was an American astronomer, professor, and ufologist. He is best remembered for his UFO research. Hynek acted as scientific advisor to UFO studies undertaken by the US Air Force under three consecutive projects: Project Sign (1947–1949), Project Grudge (1949–1952), and Project Blue Book (1952–1969). In later years, he conducted his own independent UFO research, developing the Close Encounter classification system. He is widely considered the father of the concept of scientific analysis both of reports and especially of trace evidence purportedly left by UFOs.

Project Blue Book

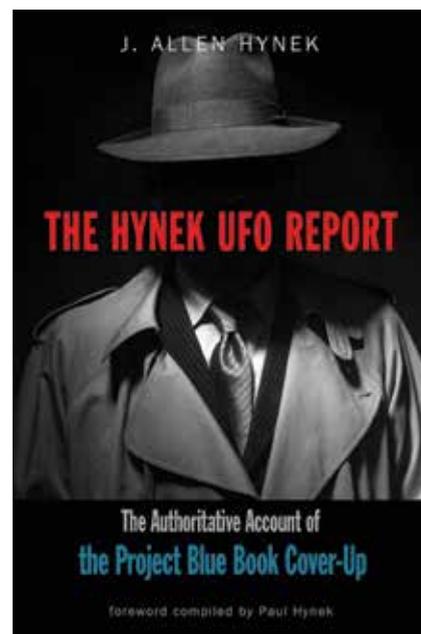

The Top Secret UFO Files that Revealed a Government Cover-Up

Edited by Brad Steiger

Foreword by Donald E. Schmitt, author of Witness to Roswell, and former co-director of the J. Allen Hynek Center for UFO Studies

A new edition of the blockbuster book that revealed the top-secret findings of the US government about UFOs.

This book, based on secret files obtained through the Freedom of Information Act, includes accounts of seven of the most important USAF enquiries—among them the story of the nights the White House was buzzed by UFOs; the mystery of the Lubbock Lights; the full story of Captain Mantell, ufology's first martyr; and the startling conversion of the prominent astronomer J. Allen Hynek from UFO skeptic to believer.

How to Listen and How to Be Heard

"Inclusive Conversations at Work"

Alissa Carpenter

- Bridging the hard-to-talk-about divisions that fracture our teams—including gender, race, and age

For anyone who has ever felt their voice isn't heard at work. This is a guide on how to empower yourself and others to communicate with people who think, act, and experience things differently than you, and do so with more confidence, candor, and authenticity.

There is no denying that our workplaces are more diverse than ever. There are so many different perspectives and experiences being brought to the table—age, race, gender, and more. And the best employees and leaders know that harnessing the power of these differences will build stronger teams and organizations. But how do we do this? The first step is recognizing that these differences exist—we need to respect and embrace varied viewpoints, and start to communicate across (not against) them.

This book teaches managers, employees, and colleagues from all fields to bridge the conversation gap to work more harmoniously.

About the Author

Alissa Carpenter is a multigenerational workplace expert and owner of Everything's Not Ok and That's OK, where she provides consulting services to organizations all over the world. She has presented a TEDx talk on authentic workplace communication, and has been in Forbes, and appeared on ABC, FOX, and CNN Money. Visit her at www.notokthatsokcoach.com.

The Little Book of Prosperity

The 12 Principles of Wealth and Abundance

Chris Gentry

- A primer for achieving wealth based on the 12 principles
- An attractive gift book filled with inspiration on the run

Loaded with the most salient prosperity wisdom of the last one hundred years, here is a blueprint for life beyond your wildest dreams.

Each of the twelve chapters is lead by one of the world's greatest prosperity teachers, including selections of writings from Napoleon Hill, James Allen, Norman Vincent Peale, Maxwell Maltz, Neville, and many more. Those principles are:

1. Goals
2. Dreams
3. Perseverance
4. Growth
5. Self-Confidence
6. Imagination
7. Self-Talk
8. Master Minds
9. Play
10. Decisions
11. Taking Action
12. Giving Back

From the book:

“Optimism is the most important human trait, because it allows us to evolve our ideas, to improve our situation, and to hope for a better tomorrow.” —Seth Godin

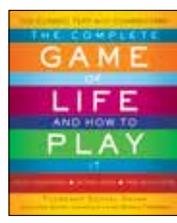

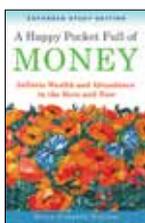

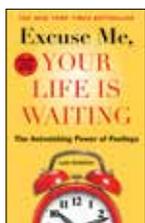

“Be thankful for what you have; you’ll end up having more. If you concentrate on what you don’t have, you will never, ever have enough.” —Oprah Winfrey

“‘No’ is a word on your path to ‘Yes.’ Don’t give up too soon. Not even if well-meaning parents, relatives, friends and colleagues tell you to get ‘a real job.’ Your dreams are your real job.” —Joyce Spizer

“Why should you continue going after your dreams? Because seeing the look on the faces of the people who said you couldn’t. . . will be priceless.” —Kevin Ngo

The content is further enhanced by thoughtful exercises that will aid readers in their personal success journeys.

The Alchemy of Inner Work

A Guide for Turning Illness and Suffering into True Health and Well-Being

Lorie Eve Dechar and Benjamin Fox

- For anyone wanting to take an active role in self-healing, as well as alternative health practitioners wanting to explore new models and modalities of healing

Presents a transformative path from illness to true health and well-being by removing the barriers that block our own healing energy.

In The Alchemy of Inner Work, Dechar and Fox examine how illness, suffering, and dis-ease—the “lead” of our lives—can become the “gold” of our authentic selves, and the key to good health and well-being.

Drawing on traditional Chinese medicine, Eastern and Western alchemical traditions, Kabbalah, and Jungian psychology—plus case studies from working with patients—the authors provide hands-on insights for bringing “the soul of medicine” back into our lives. They provide a simple introduction to this ancient practice along with an array of practices for removing the barriers that block our own healing energy and an invitation to alchemical “dream work” as a support on the path of healing.

About the Authors

Lorie Eve Dechar holds a master's degree in acupuncture from the Traditional Acupuncture Institute and training in Archetypal Psychology, Gestalt and Focusing-Oriented Psychotherapy. With her husband, Benjamin Fox, she cofounded A New Possibility, a global healing and learning community. Benjamin Fox is a professional counseling astrologer and a licensed massage therapist with 20 years of integrative bodywork and healing experience. Existential Kink

Unmask Your Shadow and Embrace Your Power

Carolyn Elliott, PhD

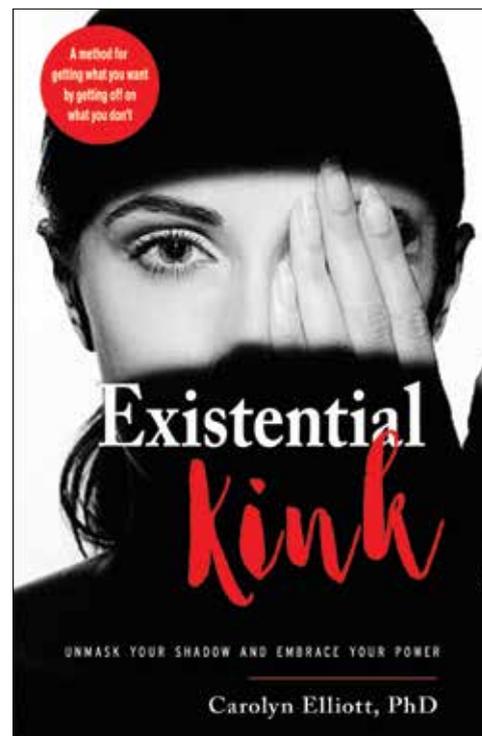

- For women looking to free themselves of self-sabotaging habits and desires.
- “Existential kink” is a life-changing method of self-transformation using the dark, energetic, unconscious source of magic in our lives.
- Founder of the online magazine WITCH and the wildly popular online course Influence, Dr. Carolyn Elliott has a very strong social media presence.

A smart, sexy guide to embracing the repressed, tabooed, and often unwanted aspects of ourselves so we can discover our inner power and finally live the life we deserve.

“We always get exactly what we want; but often, though we may not be aware of it, what we most want is dark—very dark.”

Each of us has a dual nature: we are light (conscious) and dark (unconscious). The dark side of our personality—the “other,” the shadow side—is made up of what we think is our primitive, primal, negative impulses. This is our “existential kink.” Our existential kink also drives the dark or negative repeating patterns in our life: always choosing the abusive partner or boss, settling for less, thinking that we’re undeserving. But it is also the source of our greatest power.

In Existential Kink, Carolyn Elliott, PhD, invites us to make conscious the unconscious and to acknowledge and admit the subconscious pleasure we get from the stuck, painful patterns of our existence. She offers practical advice and meditations for loving and accepting our shadow side’s “guilty pleasures,” and integrating them into our whole being in order to turn all this “raw, hot, glorious power” toward getting what we truly want in our lives.

Horse Magick

Spells and Rituals for Self-Empowerment, Protection, and Prosperity

Lawren Leo with Domenic Leo

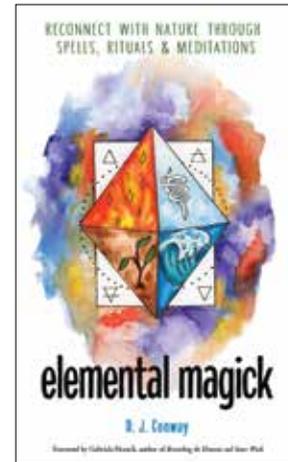

Along with the bear, horses are a primary creature associated with shamanism and traditions influenced by it. They appear in 25,000-year-old cave paintings and find a role in the modern African diaspora traditions like Haitian Vodou and Celtic mythology. They are a universal archetype and symbol of fertility, an inspiration for witchcraft and vehicle for enhancing extrasensory powers.

Horse Magick is for anyone interested in these magnificent creatures, spirit animals and the magickal powers they represent. It contains spells, rituals, and meditations for many purposes, including protection and self-empowerment. The easily accessible tools involved include crystals, candles, and Tarot cards. Numerous traditions are represented, and many deities, including Athena, Epona, and Baba Yaga. No contact with actual horses is required.

About the Authors

Lawren Leo is an author and the owner of New Moon Books, Crystals, and Candles, a metaphysical boutique in Pompano Beach, Florida. He contributes to and co-edits the e-zine he founded, The Familiar.

Domenic Leo, MD, holds degrees in French and Spanish literature, linguistics, and ancient Greek. Visit them at www.creativemedicineonline.com.

Elemental Magick

Reconnect with Nature Through Spells, Rituals & Meditations

D. J. Conway

Foreword by Gabriela Herstik, author of Bewitching the Elements and Inner Witch

While most spiritual seekers have a basic knowledge of these four elements, and the more nebulous fifth element, spirit, few realize that the energies of the elements are a key to their magical practice.

With a new foreword by popular author Gaby Herstik, Elemental Magick offers readers insight into the inner teachings of the elements and how they provide a framework for literally everything in the universe. She explains the all-important element of spirit that belongs to each of the other elements and how these intimate connections allow the magickal energy to flow. By learning how to work with and balance the elements and their spirits, readers will better understand the larger process of balancing one's own life.

About the Author

A native of the Pacific Northwest, D. J. Conway (1939–2019) studied the esoteric and occult fields of spiritual practice for more than 35 years. She authored over 30 books on magic, Wicca, Druidism, shamanism, metaphysics, and the occult, and three fantasy novels.

The Anunnaki Connection

Sumerian Gods, Alien DNA, and the Fate of Humanity

Heather Lynn, PhD

This definitive guide connects a diverse range of new and existing theories about the Anunnaki, while exploring their possible connection to humanity's past, present, and future.

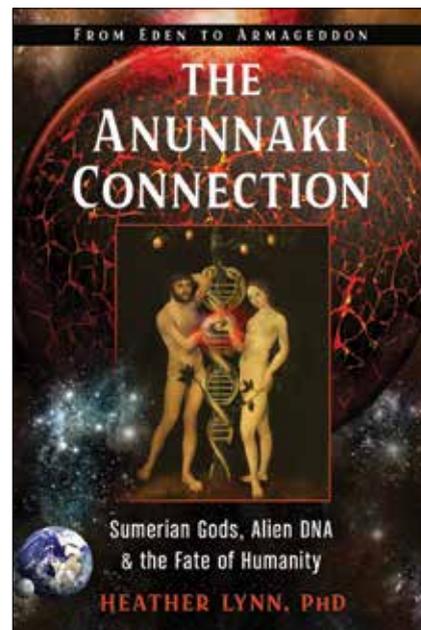

Over 6,000 years ago, the world's first civilization, the Sumerians, were recording stories of strange celestial gods known as the Anunnaki who they believed came from the heavens to create mankind.

With so little written about them, it has led many to wonder the true story behind the Anunnaki and what role they played in engineering mankind. Lynn traces the evolution of these Mesopotamian gods throughout the Ancient Near East, analyzing the religion, myth, art, and symbolism of the Sumerians:

- How accurate are current Sumerian text translations?
- Is there a connection between the Anunnaki and other gods? What about demons?
- Where are the Anunnaki now?

About the Author

Dr. Heather Lynn is a professional historian and renegade archaeologist on a quest to uncover the truth behind ancient mysteries. Heather's work exposes our hidden history, challenging the accepted narrative found in mainstream history books. Visit her at www.drheatherlynn.com.

On the Trail of Bigfoot

Tracking the Enigmatic Giants of the Forest

Mike Dupler

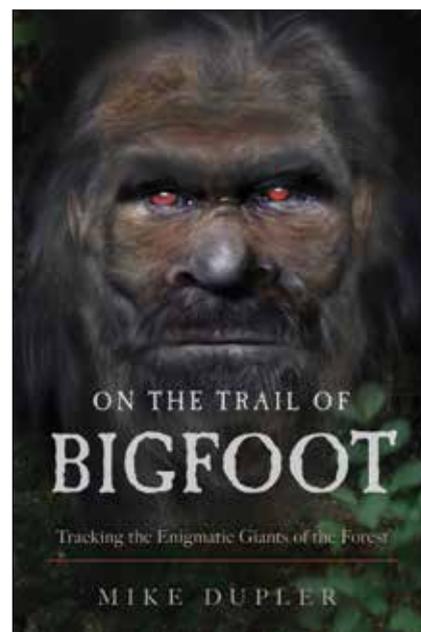

“Join Mike Dupler on his journey of adventure and discovery for the enigmatic giants of the forests. I highly recommend this book!” —Loren Coleman, author and founder of the International Cryptozoology Museum

On the Trail of Bigfoot is a firsthand account from paranormal researcher and skilled outdoorsman Mike Dupler on his many years of investigations into the Bigfoot phenomena and personal encounters with these enigmatic creatures, complete with photographs. Unique to this book is a detailed examination of stick structures attributed to Sasquatch, providing a wealth of information and reasoned speculation on the nature of these calling cards that serve as a haunting reminder to Bigfoot's presence.

This plainspoken guide explores a variety of fascinating aspects of the Bigfoot mystery such as origins and their place on the primate evolutionary tree, their social interaction and higher intelligence, communication techniques, and the similarities and disparities with other paranormal manifestations and whether Bigfoot are interdimensional beings or biological—or both.

Stellas Daemonum

The Orders of Daimons

David Crowhurst

Foreword by Lon Milo DuQuette, author of Enochian Vision Magick

- A clothbound deluxe edition, with two-color cover stamping and decorative binding

An exploration of the 93 spirits or “star demons” as revealed in the medieval grimoires and classical esoteric texts, and their correspondences in magic and astrology.

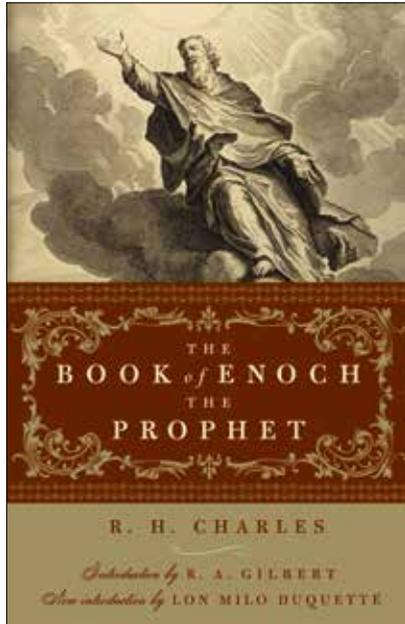

Stellas Daemonum offers an in-depth analysis of the spirits that appear in several late medieval and early modern grimoires. The book unravels these texts’ mythical, etymological, magical, and religious meanings, and draws out their astrological correspondences.

David Crowhurst shows how the spirit entities featured in these Goetic grimoires can be best understood by studying the celestial nature apparent in the ancient concept of the daimon and through an extensive study of the 93 spirits featured in medieval and renaissance texts.

The book also explores how traditional Judeo-Christian religion ultimately demonized such expressions due to their polytheistic roots and made punishable by death any attempts to reconnect with them.

About the Author

David Crowhurst formed his deep interest in religion, mythology, and the mysteries of the stars in his homeland of Wales. He is a member of the Ordo Templi Orientis and aspirant to the A. . . A. . . Visit him at septentriones.net.

The Book of Enoch the Prophet (Weiser Classics Edition)

R. H. Charles

Introduction by Lon Milo DuQuette, author of Enochian Vision Magick

A jacketed hardcover of the bestselling edition of the most important non-canonical apocalyptic text. This deluxe edition has a cloth spine and sewn binding, and is printed on archival quality paper.

Banned by Christian Fathers and thought lost for millennia, The Book of Enoch reveals a nontraditional apocalyptic vision. According to Enoch, the wicked shall be cast out and the good will realize a literal heaven on Earth. The prophecies also contain the lost “Book of Noah,” early references to a messiah as “Christ,” and an accounting of the angels and subsequent creation of demons.

This superlative translation by noted scholar and theologian R. H. Charles is one of the best available. The introduction by esoteric scholar and antiquarian bookseller R. A. Gilbert helps place The Book of Enoch in historical context and dispels many of the dubious interpretations previously attributed to it.

About the Author

R. H. Charles was a noted theologian and scholar, with many of his reference works remaining in print today. He died in 1931. Lon Milo DuQuette is a bestselling author and lecturer whose books on magick, tarot, and the Western mystery traditions have been translated into ten languages. He is currently US Deputy Grand Master of Ordo Templi Orientis. Visit him at www.londuquette.com.

The Herbal Alchemist's Handbook (Weiser Classics Edition)

A Complete Guide to Magickal Herbs and How to Use Them

Karen Harrison

Foreword by Arin Murphy-Hiscock, author of The Green Witch

- Part of the Weiser Classics Series: essential works that represent the full range of Weiser's publishing program. Each title provides a perfect introduction and trustworthy guide to the subject addressed.

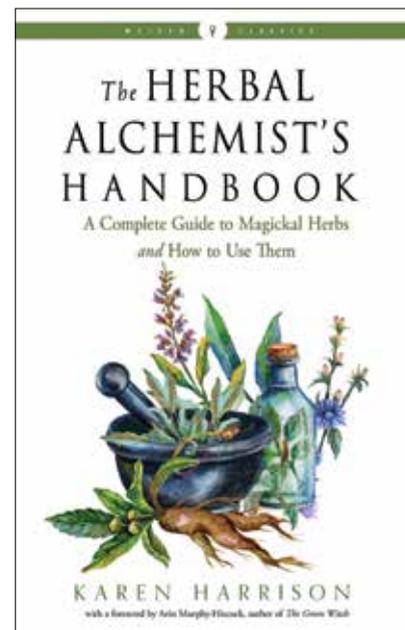

An herbal magick grimoire of philtres, elixirs, essential oils, incense, and formulas with dozens of recipes from a master herbalist, magick practitioner, and trusted author.

Herbs have been used for medicine, magic, and ritual for centuries. The ancient arts of herbal alchemy and herbal magick combine the healing and energizing effects of herbs (roots, leaves, flowers, resins, and essential oils) with the cycles of the natural world—the astrological movement of the stars and planets, and the cycles of the earth's seasons.

Harrison shows how to select herbs based on their astrological associations as well as their medicinal properties. Readers will learn how to blend incense, create ceremonial oils, make bath salts, and much more, and use them in their magical practice. Included are more than 150 herbs and their energy associations.

About the Author

Karen Harrison earned a master of herbology from the Emerson College of Herbology in Montreal and is the proprietress of Moon Magick Alchemical Apothecary. Visit her at www.isisbooks.com.

Futhark (Weiser Classics Edition)

A Handbook of Rune Magic

Edred Thorsson

Foreword by Christopher McIntosh, author of Beyond the North Wind

- Part of the Weiser Classics Series: essential works that represent the full range of Weiser's publishing program. Each title provides a perfect introduction and trustworthy guide to the subject addressed.
- Edred Thorsson is a leading authority on runes

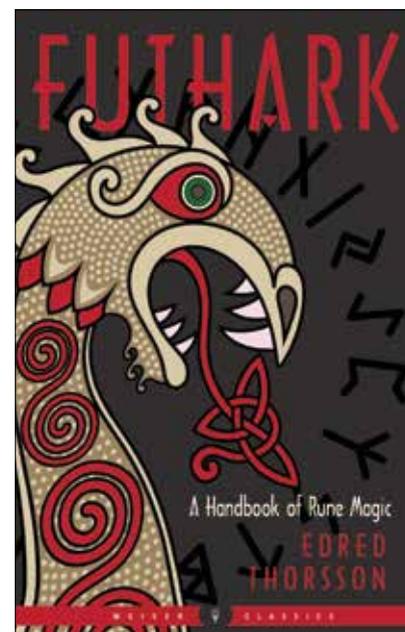

A new edition of the essential guide to the practice of the runes as a magical tool for spiritual transformation and self-development.

In Futhark, rune master Edred Thorsson reinitiates us into our heritage, explaining the mysteries of a profound system of thought and practice that underlies our developing Western culture.

Futhark covers both the spiritual heritage of ancient runic lore and the practical steps we can take to draw on rune power. This complete book of rune instruction includes rune history and lore, its basis in metaphysical thought and mysticism, complete definitions of the twenty-four runes of the Elder Futhark, and the etymology, phonetic value, and interpretation of each rune. The reader will learn how to perform chants and rituals using runic energy, how to sign and send runes, and how to practice runic meditation.

About the Author

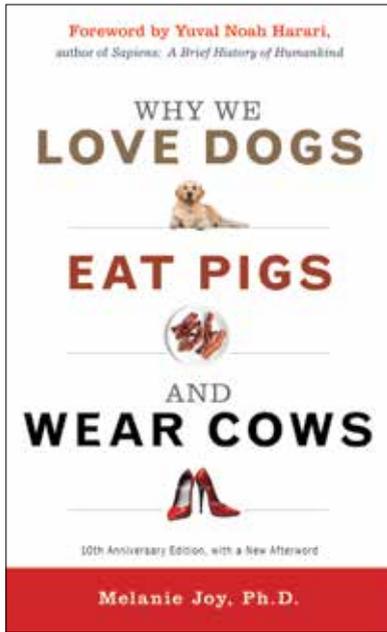

Edred Thorsson is an American runologist and proponent of occultism and Germanic mysticism. He is the author of over two dozen books on esoteric runology. He lives in Texas.

Why We Love Dogs, Eat Pigs, and Wear Cows 10th Anniversary Edition

Melanie Joy, PhD

Foreword by Yuval Noah Harari, author of Sapiens: A Brief History of Humankind

A classic of the vegan movement—voted Top 10 by VegNews—with a new afterword by the author and a new foreword from New York Times bestselling author Yuval Noah Harari

“An important and groundbreaking contribution to the struggle for the welfare of animals.”
—Yuval Noah Harari, New York Times bestselling author of Sapiens: A Brief History of Humankind

Why We Love Dogs, Eat Pigs, and Wear Cows offers an absorbing look at why humans are devoted to certain animals and allow others to suffer, especially those slaughtered for consumption. Social psychologist Melanie Joy explores the many ways we disconnect from our natural empathy for farmed animals. She investigates factory farming and the environmental impact of raising 10 billion animals annually for food. She coined the term “carnism” to describe the belief system that conditions us to eat certain animals and not others. Controversial and challenging, this book will change the way you think about food forever.

“An absorbing examination of why humans feel affection and compassion for certain animals but are callous to the suffering of others.” —Publishers Weekly

About the Author

Melanie Joy, PhD, EdM, is a Harvard-educated psychologist, organizational consultant, and relationship coach with an international reach of over 12 million. She lectures widely and has been featured on the BBC, NPR, and ABC Australia, and in Der Spiegel and the New York Times. Visit her at www.carnism.org.

Finding Peace at the End of Life

A Death Doula's Guide for Families and Caregivers

Henry Fersko-Weiss

- First published as Caring for the Dying (Conari, 978-1-57324-696-5, 2017, HC), this new paperback edition includes a Discussion Guide and List of Resources

From a longtime end-of-life “midwife,” commonly referred to as a death doula, comes a practical guide to navigating the transition from life to death.

“This book makes a compelling case for end-of-life doula care for the dying and their loved ones. Long-time practitioner Fersko-Weiss also discusses techniques and practices for readers who want to have a more peaceful, meaningful death experience.” —Library Journal (Best Books of 2017)

“Fersko-Weiss’s perspective is a desperately needed reminder of the value of facing life’s most difficult transitions with open eyes and hearts.” —Publishers Weekly (starred review)

The doula approach to death offers opportunities to explore the meaning of life and to convey that meaning through legacy work, and it shows how dying doesn’t need to be bleak, but life-affirming. It emphasizes thoughtful planning and around-the-clock vigil care, which provides emotional and spiritual support for both the dying person and his or her loved ones.

About the Author

Henry Fersko-Weiss, LCSW, is executive director of the International End-of-Life Doula Association. In 2003, he created the first End-of-Life Doula Program in the U.S. at a hospice in New York. Henry is on the faculty of the Open Center’s Art of Dying Institute. Visit him at www.inelda.org.

Dynamics of Stillness

Develop Your Senses and Reconnect with Nature Through 31 Meditative Practices

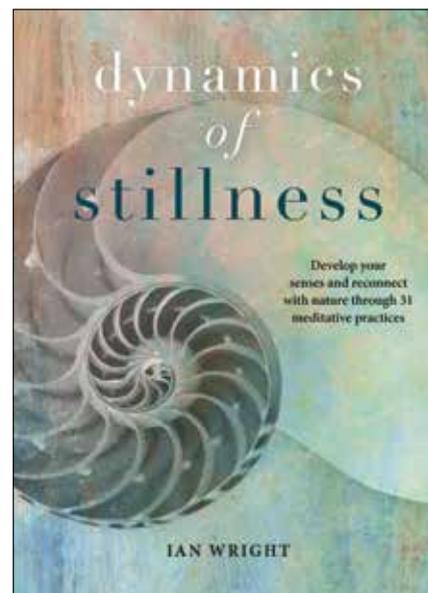

Ian Wright

Stop and be still . . . with this practical approach to mindfulness and 31 step-by-step exercises for meditative practices.

This book is the antidote to the information overload of the modern age, helping readers to disengage from chaos and find stillness within. In this practical book, experienced osteopath Ian Wright blends holistic disciplines—including those from Buddhism, Taoism, and Aboriginal traditions—with modern science and fluid dynamics to help readers quiet their minds to self-heal. Through mindfulness and meditation techniques, he guides readers toward a calm, nonreactive “state of neutrality,” while at the same time allowing them to establish a deep connection between their senses and the world.

The Spirit of the Celtic Gods and Goddesses

Their History, Magical Power, and Healing Energies

Carl McColman and Kathryn Hinds

Foreword by Courtney Weber, author of Brigid: History, Mystery, and Magick of the Celtic Goddess

Brings the history of the Celtic gods and goddesses to life, along with visualizations, rituals, and exercises to incorporate into any spiritual practice.

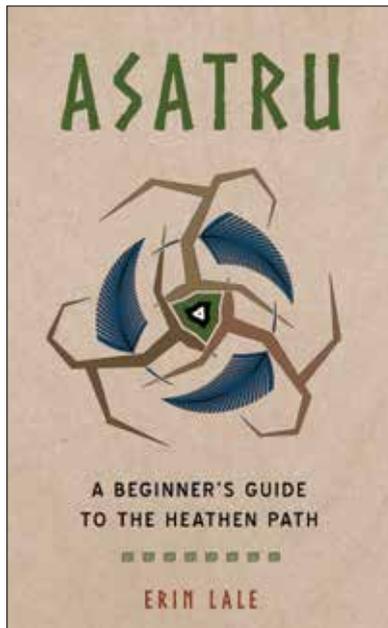

Among Pagans, the gods and goddesses of Gaul, Ireland, Wales, and the other Celtic lands rank alongside the most popular and influential of the Greek, Roman, Norse, and Egyptian pantheons. Figures like Brigid, Cernunnos, Rhiannon, and the Morrigan are honored for their magic, their bravery, and their mythical deeds.

Among the many things readers will learn:

- Key features of each of the major Irish, Welsh, and continental Celtic deities
- How to create rituals and magical work appropriate for each deity
- The psychological archetypes of each god and goddess
- How to relate the various gods and goddesses to the sabbats and holy days

About the Authors

Carl McColman is the author of several books on Christian mysticism, Paganism, and goddess spirituality. Visit him at www.carlmccolman.com. Kathryn Hinds (deceased) was the author of more than 50 books on world history and mythology, including The Celts of Northern Europe.

Asatru

A Beginner's Guide to the Heathen Path

Erin Lale

A clear and simple introduction to one of the fastest growing religions in the U.S. and Europe—its history, beliefs, rituals, and gods and goddesses drawn from ancient northern European traditions.

Asatru is a modern Pagan tradition whose roots lie in the ancient myths, folklore, sagas, and historical artifacts of those who lived in pre-Christian times in what is now Iceland, Scandinavia, Scotland, Germany, and other parts of northern Europe. An accessible introduction to this heathen religion, including these key topics:

- A brief exploration of Asatru's mythology
- Its gods and goddesses, rituals, magical practice of divination, spells, and berserkrangr (a form of trance magic)
- The moral virtues: courage, honor, loyalty, truth, hospitality, industriousness, self-discipline, self-reliance, and steadfastness
- A look at various interpretations of the Asatru tradition, and the "hijacking" of its symbolism over the last two centuries

About the Author

Erin Lale is the author of Asatru for Beginners (on which this book is based) and other books. She is the former editor and publisher of Berserkrangr magazine, and writes the Pagansquare blog Gnosis Diary: Life as a Heathen.

The 21 Divisions

Mysteries and Magic of Dominican Voodoo

Hector Salva

Foreword by Hoodoo Sen Moise, author of Working Conjure

- The 21 Divisions represent the 21 groups of spirits of Dominican Voodoo—historically kept secret

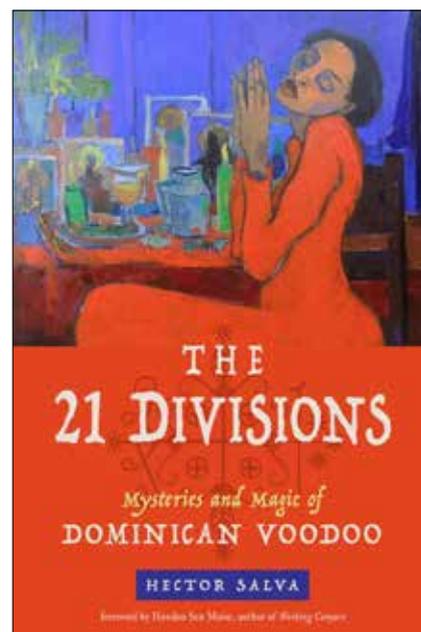

One of the first books to explore the unique tradition of Dominican shamanism, the magical practices called the 21 Divisions—filled with detailed insider information, history, and real stories of healing, magic, and mystery.

Like all forms of Caribbean Voodoo, practitioners of the 21 Divisions believe in one God, a distant God that doesn't get involved in human affairs. Followers of this Dominican spiritual tradition believe that God created intermediaries, known as Los Misterios—powerful beings with rulership and dominion over universal forces and human conditions. Practitioners of the 21 Divisions have ways of connecting with the Misterios to achieve success in life, improve their careers, resolve relationship issues, heal illness, and more.

Hector Salva is one of the foremost authorities on the practice of the 21 Divisions and gives readers all they need to get started on this path.

About the Author

Hector Salva (Papa Hector) was born and raised in a family of brujos (witchdoctors, healers, and sorcerers) that practiced 21 Divisions, Sanse, and Puerto Rican Espiritismo. He is the author and originator of ezilikonnen.com. Visit him at www.sansereligion.com.

Hoodoo Cleansing and Protection Magic

Banish Negative Energy and Ward Off Unpleasant People

Miss Aida

Foreword by Judika Illes, author of Encyclopedia of 5,000 Spells

- Miss Aida is a familiar and trusted authority on hoodoo and has deep roots in Afro-Cuban culture

Magical tips and techniques for keeping negative people and harmful forces at bay so you can take control of your destiny and live your best life.

Does your house feel a little wonky? Is someone giving you the evil eye? Are you just having a run of bad luck or have you been cursed? Miss Aida answers all these questions and more.

In Hoodoo Cleansing and Protection Magic, Miss Aida—a seasoned magical practitioner—offers sound, practical advice for all sorts of dicey situations, large and small. The book is filled with rituals, spells, and Miss Aida's own personal magical formulas for removing negative energies, breaking malevolent spells, banishing harmful people, distinguishing between reputable ghost hunters and frauds, recognizing bewitched or possessed objects and removing their effects, and more. Take control of your life with Miss Aida by your side.

About the Author

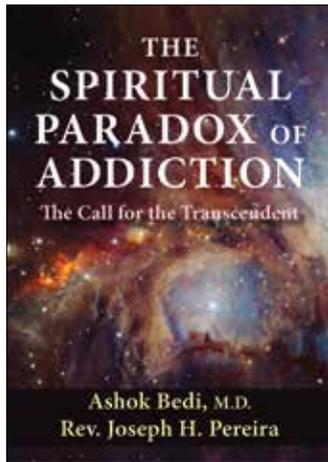

Miss Aida was born into a family who practiced Santeria, Palo, or Brujeria—or a combination of all three. A natural medium and hoodoo practitioner, she is also a US Air Force veteran and a registered nurse. Visit her at www.missaida.com.

The Spiritual Paradox of Addiction

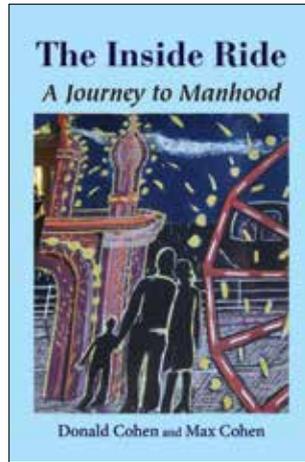

The Call for the Transcendent

Ashok Bedi, MD, and Rev. Joseph H. Pereira

This is a non-ideological book on the spiritual causes and roots of addiction, incorporating Jungian psychology and ancient Eastern philosophy. The authors provide practical techniques based on their decades of experience treating addiction in India and the United States. They offer a series of insights and practical methods whereby one's spiritual nature (faith) may be restored and positively channeled into life-sustaining behaviors. Included are instruction in yoga and breathing exercises, meditation, and mindfulness, as well as case studies and medical guidance for detoxification.

About the Authors

Ashok Bedi, MD, author of Crossing the Healing Zone, is a Jungian psychoanalyst and a board-certified psychiatrist. Rev. Joseph Pereira is the founder and managing director of the Kripa Foundation in Mumbai, India, which is devoted to the care, support, and treatment of those affected by chemical dependency and HIV and AIDS.

The Inside Ride

A Journey to Manhood

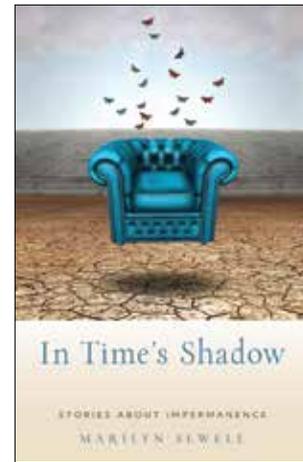

Donald Cohen and Max Cohen

An extended and fearless exploration on the meaning of manhood in contemporary Western culture—at a moment in time in which both Fatherhood and Manhood have become endangered concepts. Pointing out the need for strong male relationships and guidance, this book offers an essential prescription for the psychological health of modern Western societies, which have lost the thread of traditional cultures and their time-honored rites of passage.

The extensive letter exchange between father and son demonstrates intimacy and honesty in analyzing and exploring the often tumultuous events of their lives. Trained in two different psychological disciplines, their interaction provides the reader a look at the complexity of growing up in America's fast-changing culture, offering invaluable insights for both children and parents. With an introduction by Donald's son, Jared Cohen, author of the New York Times bestseller Accidental Presidents.

About the Authors

Donald Cohen holds an MSW from Columbia University and a PhD in clinical psychology from the California School of Professional Psychology. Dr. Max Cohen earned his MD from New York Medical College, completed psychiatric training at Columbia University. He passed away in 2011.

In Time's Shadow

Stories About Impermanence

Marilyn Sewell

Minister, author, and activist Marilyn Sewell reflects on the everyday, the places we live and work, the thoughts we all have but hardly ever share, though they may carry the most profound of our human concerns. Using a variety of short literary forms—dramatic monologues, vignettes, letters, prose poems, lists, surrealist tales—Sewell presents quirky, ironic, and compassionate slices of life that will bring laughter and at the same time take you deeper into the mysteries of existence.

About the Author

Rev. Marilyn Sewell is minister emerita of the First Unitarian Church of Portland, Oregon, where she served as senior minister for seventeen years.

The Secret Temple (Revised and Expanded Second Edition)

Masons, Mysteries, and the Founding of America

Peter Levenda

A fascinating historical overview of Freemasonry from its earliest mythic beginnings to its modern-day influences.

This is a unique history of Masonry written from the perspective of an educated outsider. The author is sympathetic to Masonic goals, a historian of secret societies and political conspiracies, and an exhaustive researcher. He looks back to the earliest roots of the Craft, and then traces its influence into modern times. From the Bible's Temple of Solomon through the Knights Templars, to the Rosicrucians and Illuminati, we learn of Masonry's roots and early history. Enlightenment philosophy and the revolutionary currents of eighteenth-century Europe opened an opportunity for the American experiment. The author also explores Masonry's spiritual and philosophical concepts of freedom and human dignity and its role in shaping the founding concept of America and its Declaration of Independence. Sacred geometry and architecture combined to create Washington, DC, and the rest, as they say, is history.

This second revised and enlarged edition includes a new chapter on Freemasonry in South America—from the revolution of Simón Bolívar to the capture and execution of Che Guevara.

Occult Tarot

Travis McHenry

The first tarot deck to faithfully adhere to the Solomonic principles of demon conjuration, Occult Tarot allows practitioners to discover the power of ancient demons and learn to tame the beasts that wander between the physical and spiritual worlds.

Drawing on the 72 demons of the Goetia and daemons, symbols, and sigils from other ancient magickal grimoires including Archidoxis Magica and the Key of Solomon, Occult Tarot presents a fully realized divination tool to finally embrace and behold the mysteries of the night. Designed to look like they have been ripped from the pages of 17th-century grimoires and magical texts, the cards are aged with wrinkles, rips, and discoloration. Some cards have holes where fire or ash has burned through, and some are spattered with blood, suggesting the conjurer failed to protect themselves against a violent demonic entity.

Angel Tarot

Travis McHenry

The Angel Tarot is nothing like a traditional deck of angel cards. The 72 angels of the Kabbalah (or Shem HaMephorash) are extremely powerful heavenly beings that provide assistance to mortals while also ruling over their hellish counterparts, the 72 demons of the Goetia.

When summoning an angel, their sigil (a kind of esoteric calling card) is supposed to be drawn on a piece of pure virgin parchment in red ink. To echo this color palette, the cards are made to look like fresh, pure parchment. The borders of each card are deep crimson, which creates a striking contrast. There are two sigils combined with a powerful invocation on the back of each card, as well as the Great Pentacle of Solomon to protect you from summoning any unwanted spirits.

About the Author

Devoted and modern occultist Travis McHenry has been a student of many religions, including Buddhism, Jainism, Hinduism, and the Greek Pantheon, and was an ordained deacon in the Baptist Church. He began studying the dark arts in the late 1990s when he stumbled upon a secretive coven of witches. In addition, from 2001 to 2008 Travis served as an intelligence specialist in the United States Navy.

Each of these beautiful and compact card decks includes 40 full-color cards that can serve as affirmations, inspirations, or daily guidance.

The I-Ching for Romance and Friendship

Advice, Insight, and Guidance for All Your Personal Relationships

Rosemary Burr

In this beautiful package readers will find all they need to consult the time-honored I-Ching oracle to find love, understand relationships, and mend friendships. Based on the eight natural laws (or energies) of the I-Ching—heaven, earth, water, thunder, mountain, wind, lake, and fire—this divination system offers guidance and emotional insight into personal relationships.

The reader simply throws the three coins six times to create a hexagram and consults the book to determine its meaning. Each of the resulting sixty-four hexagrams can be equally read for a platonic friendship, an existing partnership, or a new romance. With detailed instructions on interpreting the hexagrams and consulting the oracle, along with two-color brush painting illustrations, this book offers an easy way to rediscover the I-Ching's ancient wisdom. Includes three traditional-style coins bound into the book.

The Mood Diary

A 4-Week Plan to Track Your Emotions and Lifestyle

Andrea Harrn

This easy-to-use 28-day write-in journal is founded on CBT (cognitive behavioral therapy) and self-development techniques to help readers understand and manage their moods and emotions. The daily tracker helps the reader chart their feelings alongside daily energy levels, sleep patterns, exercise, food and drink, and even medication. Free-writing pages throughout encourage self-reflective journaling, CBT worksheets prompt readers to delve deep into emotions and patterns of thinking, and weekly assessments allow readers to chart their progress.

This fun, informative, and motivating book will help readers take control and make positive changes to lead healthier, happier lives, improve self-esteem, and build personal relationships as they work toward their goals.

Anthropology For Beginners

Micah J. Fleck; Illustrations by Luca F. Carey

- Covers all four fields of anthropology—biological anthropology, cultural anthropology, linguistic anthropology, and archaeology—with specific emphasis on where those fields interact and overlap
- Excellent compendium for any Anthropology 101 course
- Exceptionally readable and entertaining, with illustrations to supplement the text

In Anthropology For Beginners, Micah J. Fleck asks us to take a big step backward and look at the full picture of human life. We would see a myriad of languages, practices, religious rites, food palettes, clothing styles, and leisure activities—all of which belong to the same curious species: Homo sapiens. Where did it come from? How did it develop so many different ways of being? And most importantly, what do its members have in common?

Anthropology is the field that sets out to answer these questions. Micah J. Fleck provides a history not only of humankind, but of anthropology itself—giving anyone with an interest in the subject a solid background of its key figures and developments.

Covers all four fields of anthropology—biological anthropology, cultural anthropology, linguistic anthropology, and archaeology—with specific emphasis on where those fields interact and overlap. Exceptionally readable and entertaining, with illustrations to supplement the text.

Self-Sufficient Herbalism

A Guide to Growing, Gathering and Processing Herbs for Medicinal Use

Lucy Jones

The first definitive guide to the growing, gathering, and preserving of medicinal herbs for a working dispensary.

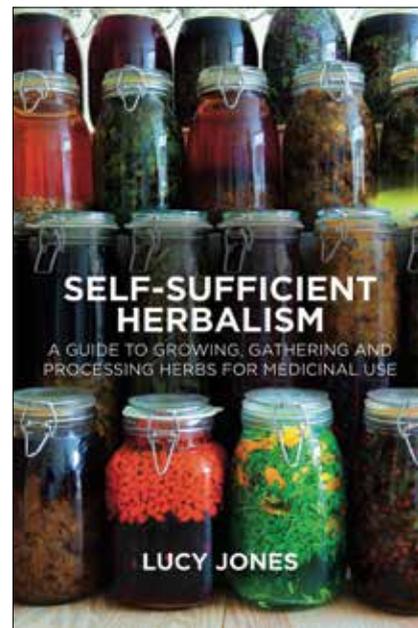

Practical herbal skills are traditionally passed down from teacher to student, yet opportunities for learning in this way are very limited. Self-Sufficient Herbalism is an important contribution to preserving fundamental aspects of traditional herbal medicine.

It is divided into three sections:

- The first section explains why self-sufficiency in herbal practice is beneficial, with chapters on environmental benefits, quality, connection with plants, and business implications.
- The second section explains how to achieve self-sufficiency, with chapters on wild crafting, growing, harvesting, drying, storage, and processing.
- The third section is a glossary with detailed notes on the cultivation, harvesting, and processing of 108 particular herbs, arranged by season.

About the Author

Lucy Jones is a medical herbalist who grows or gathers the majority of her herbs and is a passionate proponent of self-sufficient herbalism. Prior to qualifying in Western herbalism, she studied Tibetan medicine with the great master Khenpo Troru Tsenam.

Native Healers

Foundations in Western Herbal Medicine

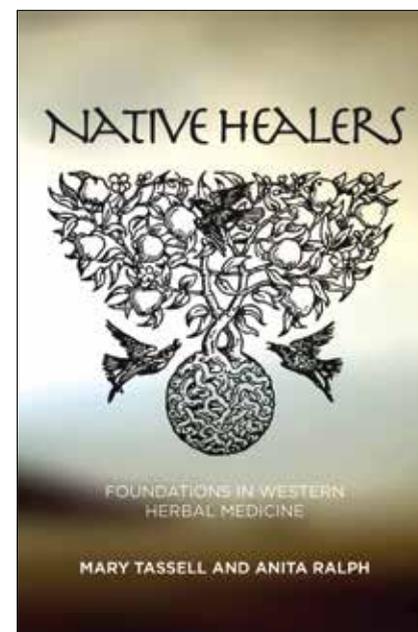

Mary Tassell and Anita Ralph

This book is intended to serve as both a convenient and informative companion text to the online coursework that constitutes the Heartwood Foundation (UK) Course in Western Herbal Medicine, and also to inform interested members of the general public about the fundamental principles and practices of Western herbal medicine.

Practical information concerning the use of safe, gentle, and effective herbs will be included, as will advice concerning the hands-on making of home remedies. Ultimately the book aims to provide a useful resource for students of Western herbal medicine, delivering quality and well referenced information concerning the modern-day philosophy of practice of a centuries-old healing modality. The writing style is simple, entertaining, and accessible, but underpinned by solid factual foundations.

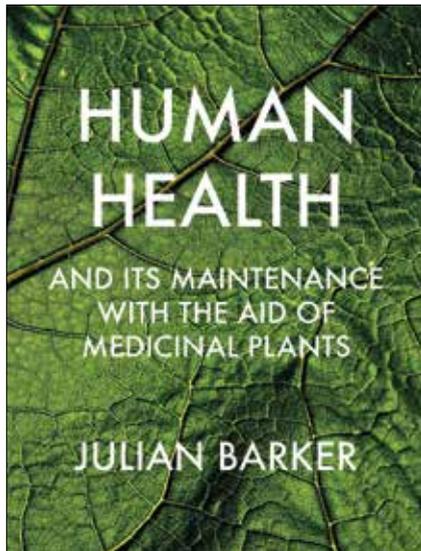

About the Authors

Mary Tassell commenced training to become a medical herbalist in 1996 and completed an MSc in Western Herbal Medicine in 2006. Anita Ralph began full-time training to become a medical herbalist in 1987 and on graduating became a member of the National Institute of Medical Herbalists (MNIMH) in 1991. She is currently a tutor for Heartwood online learning and is lead author for a Foundation Course for all those interested in the study and practice of herbalism.

Human Health and Its Maintenance with the Aid of Medicinal Plants

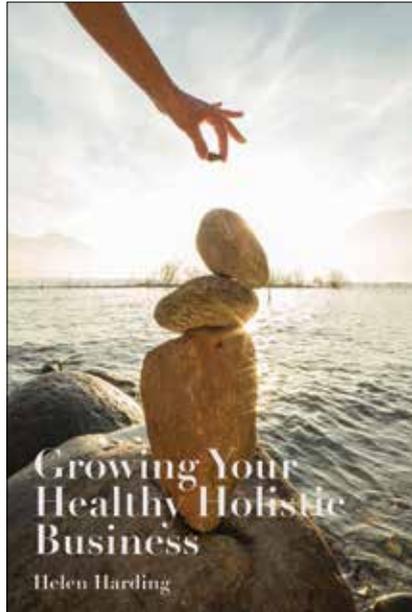

Julian Barker

This book presents a discussion of health with scant reference to disease. It formulates a number of interlocking ideas that integrate circadian physiology with the transformations that constitute human life. Time, ecology, and the biology of plants are always part of the background. The book arranges this discussion in three interrelated parts.

Part one elaborates this integrative model of health while part two is aimed toward the student of medicine as well as the newly qualified herbal practitioner. Part three attempts to explain how medicinal plants modify the terrain and how they can contribute toward health in what the author describes as Poise. The last section of part three is dedicated to Materia Medica.

About the Author

Julian Barker is a fellow of the Linnaean Society, serves on the Accreditation Board of the European Herbal Practitioners' Association, and is a member of the College of Practicing Phytotherapists and the National Institute of Medical Herbalists.

Growing Your Healthy Holistic Business

Helen Harding

This handbook was created to guide complementary practitioners and therapists as they set up and grow their practice, on their terms. It simplifies the maze of information and provides the know-how and concrete steps to create a sustainable, ethical business. Learn how to make a recipe for marketing that's based on the individual, their strengths, and the people they help. Checklists and action points help readers move through the process and address the ways they can sabotage themselves (their mind-set challenges) as they go.

About the Author

Helen Harding is a complementary practitioner (clinical hypnotherapist, Master NLP practitioner, life coach, and Advanced Lightning Process Practitioner). She has also spent more than twenty years working in marketing and business, guiding large teams and managing big budgets.

Breaking Open

Finding a Way Through Spiritual Emergencies

Edited by Jules Evans and Tim Read

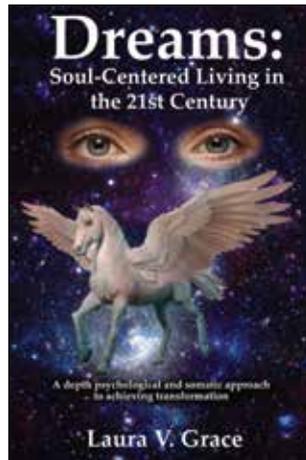

Spiritual emergencies are moments of messy awakening, crises of ego dissolution and rebirth that are often misunderstood and unskillfully managed by materialist psychiatry. As more Westerners meditate and are drawn to psychedelics to foster their psycho-spiritual growth, mystical experiences are becoming more common—yet some of them will be disturbing and difficult. There is an urgent need for our culture to upgrade its understanding of what these experiences are like and what helps people through the turbulence.

Breaking Open is the first book in which people discuss their own spiritual emergencies and share what helped them through.

About the Editors

Jules Evans is an author, broadcaster, and academic philosopher. He blogs at www.philosophyforlife.org.

Tim Read is a medical doctor, psychiatrist, and psychotherapist based in London. His book Walking Shadows: Archetype and Psyche in Crisis and Growth was published in 2015.

Dreams

Soul-Centered Living in the 21st Century

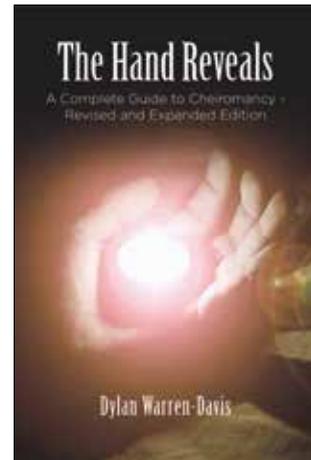

Laura V. Grace

This book begins with some basic information: seven steps to effective dream recall, befriending dream characters—especially disturbing dream images—plus recognizing the six essential dream keys accentuating self-awareness. Yet it also reaches deeper into the numinous and somatic nature of dreams and how significant they are to every area of life: intimate relationships, physical and emotional health, financial security, discovering purpose and passion, and fulfilling the needs unique to the soul.

Employing Carl Jung's process of Active Imagination and Amplification, this book reveals how dream images are alive and reside deep within us, and how animating our most disturbing dream images can unleash their greatest potential.

About the Author

Laura V. Grace, a PhD candidate at Pacifica Graduate Institute, is the producer of the Central Coast Women's Symposium and a Jungian practitioner in San Luis Obispo, CA.

The Hand Reveals

A Complete Guide to Cheiromancy (Revised and Expanded Edition)

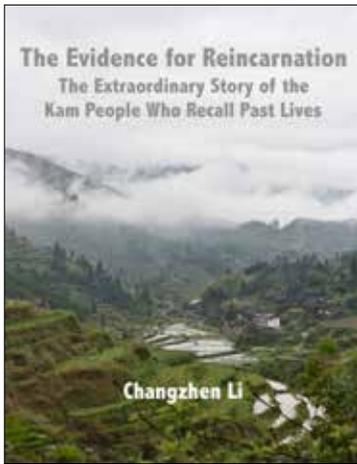

Dylan Warren-Davis

Cheiromancy is the art of hand reading in which all aspects of a person's hand are considered in order to gain an accurate picture of their inner nature. Cheiromancy is distinct from the fortune-telling of palmistry. The Hand Reveals is a practical guide to reading hands; it is not merely theoretical. As various points are described, throughout the book, try to apply this knowledge at every opportunity to find confirmation of the ideas.

This is a revised and expanded edition of the book first published in 1993 by Element Books (978-1-85230-353-2) and long out of print.

About the Author

Dylan Warren-Davis has been practicing herbal medicine (naturopathy) and hand reading for over twenty-five years.

Evidence for Reincarnation

The Extraordinary Story of the Kam People Who Recall Past Lives

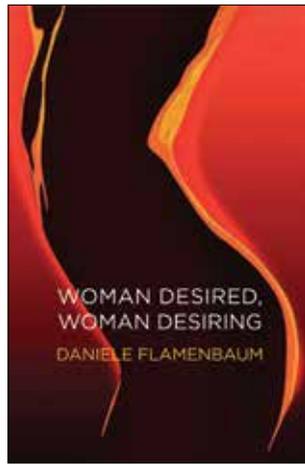

Changzhen Li

This book offers a comprehensive account of the author's work with one hundred "reincarnators" from the area of Pingyang, the homeland of the Kam people (officially the Dong ethnic group of China). All case studies are carefully documented to preserve the authenticity of their narratives, with accompanying video interviews available for reference.

While there have been many accounts of reincarnation in which subjects were able to recall memories from a past life, the cases detailed in this book are unique in that their subjects share a rare ability to recall memories from the intermediary stage between death and rebirth. This unusual trait reveals groundbreaking and thought-provoking details about the activities of spirits beyond the land of the living, and offers an invaluable addition to the field of reincarnation research.

About the Author

Changzhen Li is a graduate of Qingdao University and has been a researcher in the fields of reincarnation, ancient literature, out-of-body experiences, near-death experiences, and parapsychology for many years.

Woman Desired, Woman Desiring

Daniele Flamenbaum

This is a book about women's sexuality and sexual fulfillment that crosses several disciplines and paradigms, and is truly innovative and radical. It is written for a popular audience—women (and men) who wish to explore the deep roots of their own sexuality in order to find more ease, creativity, and satisfaction in their sexual relations. Included are numerous examples from the author's experience as a gynecologist, who found she had to go beyond the limitations of her Western medical training in order to explain the recurrent gynecological ailments of her women clients. She found successful perspectives and remedial practices through Chinese medicine, psychoanalysis, and a transgenerational approach.

About the Author

Daniele Flamenbaum has worked as a gynecologist at the Paris Faculty of Medicine since 1972. After twelve years of gynecology practice, she studied Chinese medicine and Taoist sexual alchemy and became an acupuncturist gynecologist.

Beyond the Narratives

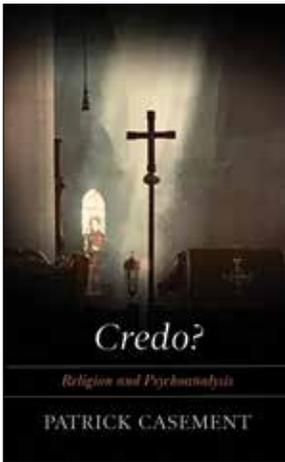

Essays on Occultism and the Future

John Michael Greer

In 2003 John Michael Greer became the seventh Grand Archdruid of the Ancient Order of Druids in America (AODA), an initiatory organization teaching Celtic nature spirituality which was founded in 1912. The outcome was that his writings began to stray into territory very far from the Hermetic occult philosophy that had been the previous focus of his career. The essays included in this volume chronicle some of the themes he explored as a result: Druidry, Jungian psychology, politics, history, and the shape of the future in a society in decline.

About the Author

John Michael Greer is the award-winning author of more than fifty books. He lives in Rhode Island with his wife, Sara. He blogs weekly on politics, magic, and the future at www.ecosophia.net.

Credo?

Religion and Psychoanalysis

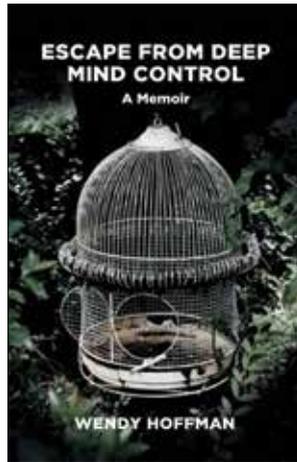

Patrick Casement

What is it that lies beyond our knowing, beyond our imagination, and beyond our understanding: beyond the reach of either science or philosophy? Might there be some unimaginable energy, some incomprehensible wisdom and purpose that will forever remain beyond our comprehending?

Patrick Casement explores the questions that arise repeatedly in the minds of all those who have faith, or an interest in faith.

About the Author

Patrick Casement is a fellow of the Institute of Psychoanalysis and a member of the International Association of Psychoanalysis.

Escape from Deep Mind Control

A Memoir

Wendy Hoffman

This book is about slavery, about brains stolen in childhood and before—brains that have been intruded upon, stopped, shrunk, paralyzed. We know about the history of people whose bodies were enslaved; but we know barely anything about the victims who appear free but whose minds are invisibly chained. This is a shocking book and those drawn to read it will include surviving victims and therapists who may want to know what happens and what to expect.

About the Author

Wendy Hoffman is a survivor of organized criminal abuse and has been a psychotherapist for over two decades working in general practice and the field of recovering dissociated memories. She has a master's in social work and two masters of fine arts. Now that she has brought together the separated parts of her mind, taken her life back, and achieved freedom, she wants to help other survivors also become free of mind control.

The Use of Medieval Weaponry

Eric Lowe

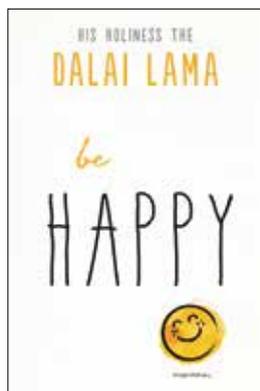

This is a book about how medieval weapons were used, according to medieval people who used them. It discusses the use of eight weapons or weapon combinations from the late Middle Ages and early Renaissance, selected with an eye toward their iconic status in popular culture, as well as five different combative contexts. The aim of this book is to familiarize the reader with the use of medieval weaponry in a general way.

About the Author

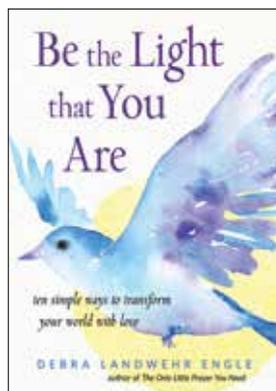

Eric Lowe is the head instructor of Swordwind Historical Swordsmanship (swordwind.org) in Charlotte, North Carolina, where he studies and teaches Kunst des Fechtens and Bolognese fencing.
