Don't Just Sit There, DO NOTHING

Healing, Chilling, and Living with the Tao Te Ching

Jessie Asya Kanzer

Foreword by Laura Day

- Daily steps to happiness through the timeless wisdom of the Tao Te Ching.
- Author's work has appeared in the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Huffington Post, and many other publications.
- National media coverage

47 hip, hilarious, and down-to-earth meditations on struggle, triumph, mindful living, and more.

Here are 47 inspirational pieces that are smart, hip, accessible, and rich with insight; Jessie Asya Kanzer's bite-sized stories of struggle, triumph, and contemplation based on sharp observations and anecdotes from her own life provide a quick burst of mindfulness.

Each chapter begins with a verse from the Tao, followed by anecdotes and observations that give the teachings of Lao Tzu applicability to contemporary life. Each chapter concludes with a "Do Your Tao" section that offers an actionable step that gives the reader a sense of grounding and fluidity. Chapters include: Success Sucks (Sometimes), F*uck This, I'm Water, I Love You, I Not Love You, The Tao of Babushka, Mystics Wear Leggings.

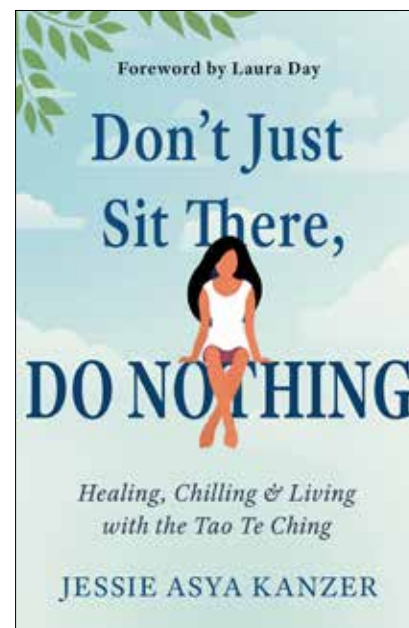

"Jessie Asya Kanzer's book is witty, wise, and wonderful. Don't just sit there, READ IT!"
—Tal Ben-Shahar, author of Happier: Learn the Secrets to Daily Joy and Lasting Fulfillment

"... Jessie writes so honestly about experiences which all of us can relate to. Plus, she delves into the ancient wisdom of the Tao Te Ching that shows us how to let go of resentments, of the past, of the 'what-ifs' and the 'should've's.' She takes us through her painful, hilarious, miraculous journey, shining light on our own. . . . Get ready for a ride!"
—Karen Salmansohn, multi-bestselling author

"Jessie has used her intuition to thrive and now shares her inspirational story with others. She is a force." —Laura Day, New York Times best-selling author of Practical Intuition and The Circle

"She's at once frank, funny, poignant. I laughed out loud and nodded in agreement as I wiped away a tear." —Jen Pastiloff, author of the national bestseller On Being Human

"Jessie Asya Kanzer is like a Taoist Anne Lamott, and she's written a practical and actionable guide." —Joel Fotinos, Vice-President and Editorial Director, St. Martin's Essentials

About the Author

Graham Hancock is the author of major international nonfiction bestsellers including The Sign and the Seal, Magicians of the Gods, Fingerprints of the Gods, and his most recent New York Times bestseller America Before. His books have sold more than seven million copies worldwide and have been translated into thirty languages. He has appeared in the TV series Quest for the Lost Civilization and Underworld: Flooded Kingdoms of the Ice Age. Hancock's public lectures, radio and TV appearances, and his strong online presence have put his ideas before an audience of millions. He resides in the UK.

Visionary

The Mysterious Origins of Human Consciousness

Graham Hancock, New York Times bestselling author of America Before

- A groundbreaking work that touches on human development in ancient times as it related to spiritual entheogens (DMT, ayahuasca, psilocybin, etc.).
- Includes new Introduction as well as seven chapters and one appendix not previously published in the US paperback edition.
- Hancock is a New York Times bestselling author.

“With the original unabridged text of Supernatural, I offer the reader an investigation that explores the human experience with psychedelics from the Stone Age to the Space Age and the role of these extraordinary plant medicines as tools to investigate the nature of reality itself.”
—Graham Hancock

Less than 50,000 years ago mankind had no art, no religion, no sophisticated symbolism, no innovative thinking. Then, in a dramatic and electrifying change, described by scientists as “the greatest riddle in human history,” all the skills and qualities that we value most highly in ourselves appeared already fully formed, as though bestowed on us by hidden powers.

In Visionary, Graham Hancock sets out to investigate this mysterious “before-and-after moment” and to discover the truth about the influences that gave birth to the modern human mind. His quest takes him on a journey of adventure and detection from the stunningly beautiful painted caves of prehistoric France, Spain, and Italy to remote rock shelters in the mountains of South Africa, where he finds a treasure trove of extraordinary Stone Age art.

Hancock uncovers clues that lead him to travel to the depths of the Amazon rain forest to drink the powerful plant hallucinogen ayahuasca with Indian shamans, whose paintings contain images of “supernatural beings” identical to the animal-human hybrids depicted in prehistoric caves and rock shelters. Hallucinogens such as mescaline also produce visionary encounters with exactly the same beings. Scientists at the cutting edge of consciousness research have begun to consider the possibility that such hallucinations may be real perceptions of other “dimensions”

Previously published as Supernatural, this definitive edition includes a new Introduction by Graham Hancock as well as restored chapters that were omitted from the original paperback release.

Reviews for Supernatural

“Hancock’s work is a welcome exploration and celebration of the mystery inside our skulls.”
—The Guardian

“As gripping as any thriller, but with profound implications for the values and future development of humanity.” —Newstatesman

“Hancock is intelligent and articulate, and his writing is as expert as you would expect from an esteemed international correspondent.” —The Scotsman

“Provocative and fascinating.” —Dailymail

“Hancock’s most important book . . . quite stunning.” —The Independent

“Supernatural explores fascinating territories of the known and the unknown.” —Calgary Herald

Twist Your Fate

Manifest Success with Astrology and Tarot

Theresa Reed

Foreword by Monte Farber, author of Mindful Astrology

- An introductory-level workbook—complementary to Astrology for Real Life (22,000 copies sold since 2019).
- Unlike most astrology books, Twist Your Fate goes beyond birth charts and sun signs to focus on how to use astrology to make the most of your life.
- Will be of special interest to entrepreneurs, creatives, and those who want to rebrand themselves or start something new.

Set yourself up for success by using astrology and tarot to discover your unique challenges and talents to achieve your goals.

Are you running your own show or is your life running you? Wondering how some folks seem to reach the top with ease while you're struggling to figure out where to even begin? Some people are born (financially, socially) into good "fate," but most of us need to twist fate to achieve our best lives.

The best way to twist fate to your advantage is to know your strengths, pay attention to what's happening around you, and trust your instincts. Understanding the strengths and weaknesses of your natal chart, being attuned to the insights that tarot can provide, and trusting your intuition are the tools you need to master any situation and create success on your terms.

Twist Your Fate will show you how to find your best path and maximize your talents. You'll learn how to use tarot to brainstorm new creative ideas, compare career options, and make intelligent decisions. You'll also learn how astrology can help you find divine timing for every situation.

What people are saying about Astrology for Real Life

"Theresa Reed [is] witty, engaging, edgy, encouraging, and injects a welcome dose of humor into a serious and complex subject. Every beginning astrologer should own a copy of this book—and many of us seasoned stargazers will want to add it to our collections too." —Skye Alexander, author of Magickal Astrology

"If you're looking for a fast, down-to-earth way to learn astrology, Theresa Reed's Astrology for Real Life is the perfect starting point. Her no-nonsense approach makes the complex system of the stars crystal clear, and her tips and tricks are the perfect addition to anyone's astrological toolbox." —Amelia Quint, astrologer for Bumble and MyDomaine

"Theresa is a living, shining example of what it means to live magically, to use astrology as a tool for understanding, growth, and evolution. This book is a gift that can help a new generation understand and embody the message of astrology in a timeless way." —Gabriela Herstik, author of Inner Witch

What people are saying about Tarot for Troubled Times

"Heartfelt, encouraging, and beautifully written, Tarot for Troubled Times is a book of healing and personal evolution." —Benebell Wen, author of Holistic Tarot

"Tarot for Troubled Times goes beyond Tarot 101 to the core of who we are, our energy as tarot readers, and what we can allow our lives to become. Through personal insights, rituals, meditations and reflective exercises you the authors lead us on a supportive journey through self-discovery and tarot card exploration." —Ethony Dawn, author of Your Tarot Court

"... a truly beautiful and essential book for anyone who desires to take their Tarot practice to a deeper level." —Lindsay Mack, creator of Tarot for the Wild Soul

"Tarot for Troubled Times is exactly what we all need right now. It's not a book on Tarot—it's a book on living, using the Tarot as a tool to deepen our understanding of ourselves and compassion for others." —Courtney Weber, author of Tarot for One

The Grind Culture Detox

Heal Yourself from the Harmful Intersection of Racism, Capitalism, and Hyper-Productivity

Heather Archer

- Provides a thorough self-care prescription for returning to a life motivated by passion instead of productivity.

You are worth more than what you produce.

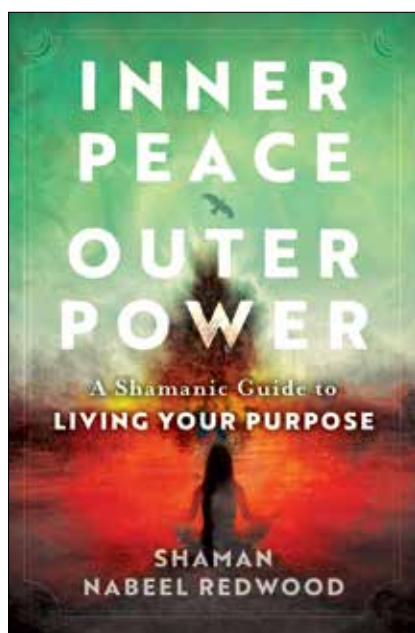

Grind culture is founded on the belief that in order to be considered valuable or worthy, one must be productive. This belief is often unconscious, and grind culture itself lurks in the rarely discussed shadow side of capitalism, where it fosters a society that equates success with production. Those who are therefore unable or unwilling to be productive by society's measure are either overlooked or discarded.

While grind culture impacts almost everyone, it's often most devastating to people of color, women, and other minority groups. Because these groups are not politically dominant, they already receive messages from the culture at large that they are less valuable, in both overt and covert ways. In response to the "you are not enough" message, they often try to produce more just to be seen or accepted in grind culture society.

In The Grind Culture Detox, author Heather Archer begins by exploring the history of grind culture, detailing the extent of the problem, and then moves us forward in offering a blueprint for radically reorienting our lives on an individual level towards authentic happiness and fulfillment, fundamentally changing our relationship with work and production forever.

About the Author

Heather Archer is a workplace well-being consultant, sound healer, workshop leader, and the cofounder of Black Healers Connect, an organization that connects healers across the African diaspora to share ancestral wisdom to restore individuals and communities. Inner Peace, Outer Power

A Shamanic Guide to Living Your Purpose

Shaman Nabeel Redwood

- Offers a variety of exercises to build a foundation of peace and purpose.

Provides a thorough introduction to applying shamanic techniques to live a confident, joyful, and empowered life.

Finding one's purpose is the central challenge in life. We all have many dreams and desires, but how do we know which one is our true purpose? And it often seems that no matter what path we choose, reality has a tendency to confound our expectations so that we are constantly having to reassess and rediscover meaning within the unpredictable stories of our lives.

Nabeel Redwood has experienced this himself. Stuck fast in the pursuit of success as an artist, he found himself caught in a tangle of alienation and depression. What he found next, however, changed his life and set him firmly on a new path—one of meaning and joy. He found shamanism.

Now, after serving thousands of clients as a shamanic healer and teacher, Redwood reveals the keys to uncovering this affirming and powerful way of being for yourself. Offering an array of exercises and practices, Inner Peace, Outer Power will help you unlock the secrets to living the life of a happy warrior, able to meet life's ups and downs with equanimity and pursue your goals and dreams with focus and zeal.

About the Author

Nabeel Redwood is the founder of Shamanic Healing LA, where he has served thousands of clients as a shamanic healer. With over a decade of experience teaching and practicing shamanism, meditation, yoga, and tantra, Nabeel is committed to sharing techniques of spiritual awakening and liberation in a clear, simple manner applicable to all. The Way of the Empath

How Compassion, Empathy and Intuition Can Heal Your World

Elaine Clayton

- A helpful guide for empaths struggling to understand their abilities as well as protect themselves.
- The ideal book for the new generation of highly sensitive people.

A guide for every empath and spiritually sensitive soul to explore their abilities with exercises, affirmations, and creative journaling, as well as methods to protect themselves.

In the 1990s, they were called “highly sensitive people”—today they are called “empaths.” Empaths are those who are highly aware to the emotional energy around them and to their own emotional needs. Because of their sensitivity, being an empath can be challenging. In fact, to be an empath is an art form—to discover how our perceptions guide and inform us, shape us, and at times limit us requires extraordinary awareness.

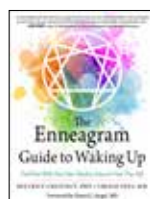

The Way of the Empath explores ways to understand empathy and how to use specific tools, such as imaginative insight, to better understand our place in the universe. With a guiding hand, The Way of the Empath covers how to:

- › Embrace positive receptivity.
- › Exercise self-care.
- › Learn to recalibrate your perceptions of other people's emotions.
- › Access intuitive knowing through creative drawing and journaling.

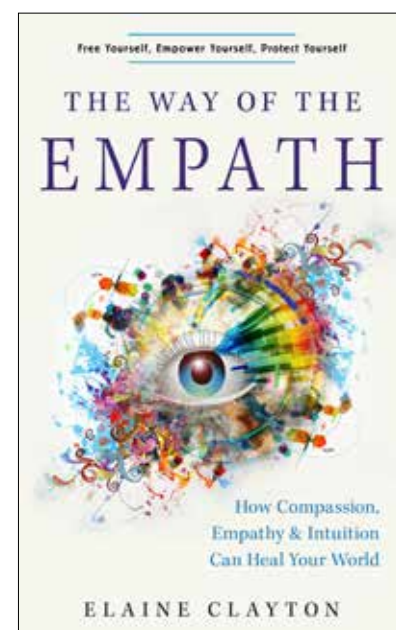

About the Author

Elaine Clayton is a teacher of intuitive empathic development. She is also an artist as well as author/illustrator of several books for children and adults on intuitive intelligence. Her editorial art includes work for the New York Times and New York Times Book Review.

Protect Your Light

A Practical Guide to Energy Protection, Cleansing, and Cutting Cords

George Lizos

Foreword by Diana Cooper

- Protection methods tailored for a new generation of spiritual seekers.
- Author is very active on social media.

“A powerful guide to managing your energy in these changing modern times.”
—Rebecca Campbell, bestselling author of Light Is the New Black

Protect Your Light offers a comprehensive, step-by-step system of clearing, shielding, and strengthening your energy. It is the first book to address energy attacks on social media, and it provides readers with practical methods for protecting their energy online. To help readers along the way, the author provides a tool kit of energy protection processes that help identify and clear energy attachments, shield energy attacks, and strengthen one's natural energetic defenses. George Lizos avoids complicated and overly ritualistic methods and instead focuses on a meditation-mindfulness approach that can be practiced anywhere, anytime.

“In Protect Your Light, George brings much-needed depth and crystal-clear insight into a vital topic. Packed with spiritual and practical toolkits for staying protected in both the physical and digital worlds, this book is a must-read for anyone who feels energy deeply.” —Sophie Bashford, author of You Are a Goddess

“George's writing balances the voice of a wise teacher with the relatable advice of a dear friend.”
—Dougall Fraser, bestselling author of Your Life In Color

- One of the most influential spiritual texts rendered into lively, contemporary language
- “As a major fan and promoter of Julian of Norwich, whom I call ‘my favorite mystic,’ it is genuinely exciting to find such a faithful but freeing translation of Julian's long-lost Showings. Now they are no longer lost—for anyone!” —Fr. Richard Rohr, OFM, Center for Action and Contemplation

In this contemporary translation of one of the most beloved and influential mystical texts of all time, Julian of Norwich: The Showings brings the message and spirituality of this 14th-century mystic to 21st-century readers.

At the age of 30, Julian suffered a severe illness that caused her to believe that she was dying. As a result of her illness, she had a series of intense visions of Jesus, which she recorded and then expanded on later in life.

Her message for today's readers is simply this:

- › We can see God through the feminine face of the Divine.
- › All our failings are an opportunity to learn and grow; they should be honored, but not dwelled upon.
- › God's love has nothing to do with love and retribution and everything to do with love and compassion.
- › In spite of all appearances, all is well.

This book was previously published as The Showings of Julian of Norwich. This new edition includes a foreword by Richard Rohr.

The Tiny Book of Big Manifesting

Jeffrey Segal

Foreword by Don Jose Ruiz, coauthor of The Fifth Agreement

- Author is a fixture in the LA New Age and crystal scene as the owner of Mystic Journey, the largest spiritual bookstore in Southern California.
- Endorsements from high-profile authors such as Michael Beckwith, Dan Millman, Marianne Williamson, and Laura Day among others.

You Can Make Your Dreams Come True! Let this powerful little book guide you to the life you want to lead.

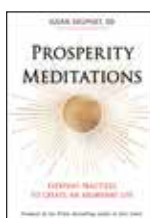

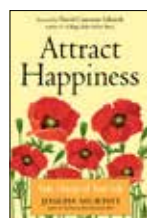

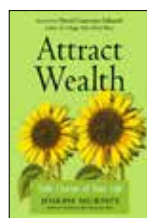

You create every waking minute of every day—in fact, every second. Even more specifically, with every word you utter, you create. Once you realize and internalize this fact you will be on the path to fulfillment.

The Tiny Book of Big Manifesting is for anyone looking to create the life they want. It provides easy-to-understand manifestation techniques, along with a Code of Life by which to live. When the techniques and the Code are combined and put into practice, life-changing events can start to occur that will help turn dreams into reality.

How to Live a Happily Ever Afterlife

Stories of Trapped Souls and How Not to Become One

Echo Bodine

Foreword by Chip Coffey, costar Kindred Spirits

- Offers prescriptive ghost stories as a guide to what makes for a happy afterlife.
- How not to become a ghost!

A psychic's exploration of ghosts and how to prevent it from happening to you.

Well-known psychic and ghost hunter Echo Bodine started seeing spirits as a young girl and has been helping to set them free for decades. Most of these spirits have one thing in common—unfinished business from their lives that leaves them restless, unable to let go and move on.

Here, Bodine shares her compelling investigations that have led her to see the issues from a spirit's living time on Earth that have kept them locked in place in their afterlife. Each story is accompanied by an exercise that will help the reader avoid the fate of a trapped, angry, or unprepared soul.

*"Echo Bodine is the most genuine psychic I have ever worked with . . ." —Dennis William Hauck, author of *Haunted Places

About the Author

Echo Bodine is known internationally for her work as a spiritual healer and writer. She has appeared on numerous national television shows, including Sally Jesse Raphael and NBC's Later Today. She is the author of a number of books, including Hands That Heal; Echoes of the Soul; Relax, It's Only a Ghost; The Little Book of Ghost Stories, and A Still Small Voice. She lives in Minnesota.

Secrets of Santa Muerte

A Guide to the Prayers, Spells, Rituals, and Hexes

Cressida Stone

- For the growing audience of devotees of Santa Muerte as well as those newly drawn to the tradition and for Mexican Americans interested in their spiritual heritage.

A deeply informed and practical guide to working with the “Saint of Death” with prayers, spells, and rituals for love, sex, money, good health, and aid with legal matters, as well as protection from enemies.

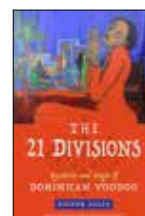

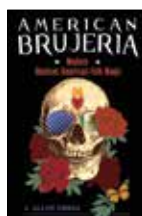

Secrets of Santa Muerte is a practical handbook on how to connect with the mysterious Mexican folk saint. Drawing from authentic Mexican sources and traditions, it details secret, esoteric knowledge that will foster a deep connection with the Saint of Death.

Prayers, spells, and rituals are included for a wide range of needs: love, sex, money, good health, and aid with legal matters, as well as hexes against and protection from enemies. For novices who wish to begin working with Santa Muerte as well as for more advanced practitioners who want to fine-tune their practice, discover new spells and rituals, and take their work with Santa Muerte to a deeper level.

About the Author

Cressida Stone is a Doctor of Religious Studies. Cressida has spent the last six years studying with Santa Muerte curanderos (“folk healers”) in Mexico.

Consorting with Spirits

Your Guide to Working with Invisible Allies

Jason Miller, author of *Protection & Reversal MagickForeword by Mat Auryn, author of *Psychic Witch

- For serious magical practitioners: chaos and ceremonial magicians, conjure folk, and witches taking their craft to the next level.
- A complete course in working with spirits of all types.

“This is a book I wish I had fifteen years ago when I began working closely with spirits.”

—Mat Auryn, author of Psychic Witch

Consorting with Spirits is a system of practices for training the mind and energy body on three abilities: the capacity to sense spirits, the capacity to interact with spirits, and the capacity to deepen and clarify that interaction. It is this deepening and clarifying that have been missing from much of the material about spirits.

This book will help readers achieve their magical goals—from calling on spirits to help with protections, money, and knowledge. The skills learned here will help them tap into power with their spirit allies.

About the Author

Jason Miller (Inominandum) has devoted twenty-five years to studying practical magic in its many forms. His books include Protection and Reversal Magick, The Elements of Spellcrafting, and Sex, Sorcery, and Spirit. Brigid's Light

Tending the Ancestral Flame of the Beloved Celtic Goddess

Edited by Cairelle Crow and Laura Louella

Foreword by Judika Illes, author of Encyclopedia of 5,000 Spells

- A celebration of one of the most important Celtic deities.
- Contributions from popular pagan authors, including Annwyn Avalon, H. Byron Ballard, Amy Blackthorn, Mary-Grace Fahrur, Courtney Weber, and Laura Tempest Zakroff—all of whom will help to promote the book.

Stories, spells, rituals, and recipes celebrating the worldwide influence of this beloved Celtic goddess.

This anthology celebrates Brigid, an ancient and mysterious Celtic spirit who ranks among today's most popular modern goddesses. Venerated in many forms including as a saint and a goddess, Brigid has traveled the globe alongside the Celtic diaspora. Once a goddess with a narrow territory, she is now an internationally beloved presence. While acknowledging her origins, this book also explores Brigid from the perspective of those outside her original Celtic homeland.

About the Editors

Cairelle Crow is a Priestess of Brigid and Co-Foundress of the Sanctuary of Brigid. She has walked a Goddess path for 30+ years, exploring, learning, and growing.

Laura Louella is a Priestess of Brigid and Co-Foundress of the Sanctuary of Brigid. Laura lives in the Cascade Mountains of Northern California.

C. S. Lewis For Beginners

Louis Markos

Illustrated by Joe Lee

- Excellent compendium to any C. S. Lewis-related course.
- Exceptionally readable and entertaining, with black-and-white illustrations to supplement the text.
- The latest edition to the popular For Beginners series.

C. S. Lewis For Beginners is a thorough examination of C. S. Lewis, the greatest Christian apologist (defender) of the 20th century, throughout his career as an author and as a professor at Oxford University.

A Christian apologist defends Christianity as a consistent and coherent worldview that squares with human reason, history, and desire. It offers answers to every facet of our lives on earth as well as answers to our questions about what happens after we die.

What makes C. S. Lewis unique as an apologist is the way he balanced so perfectly reason and imagination, logic and intuition, and head and heart. In addition to writing such nonfiction apologetics books as Mere Christianity, The Problem of Pain, and Miracles, he wrote eleven novels: the seven Chronicles of Narnia, a trilogy of science-fiction adventures, and a haunting retelling of an old myth set in the ancient world. All eleven tell wonderful, captivating stories that stand on their own as fiction but that also support and bring to life the kinds of apologetical arguments he makes in his nonfiction.

And that's not all. Lewis the apologist and novelist had a day job. He was a celebrated English professor at Oxford, and then Cambridge University who wrote works of literary criticism that are still famous today. C. S. Lewis For Beginners takes the reader through the wardrobe of his complete catalog of writing.

Plant Spirit Medicine

A Guide to Making Healing Products from Nature

Nicola McIntosh

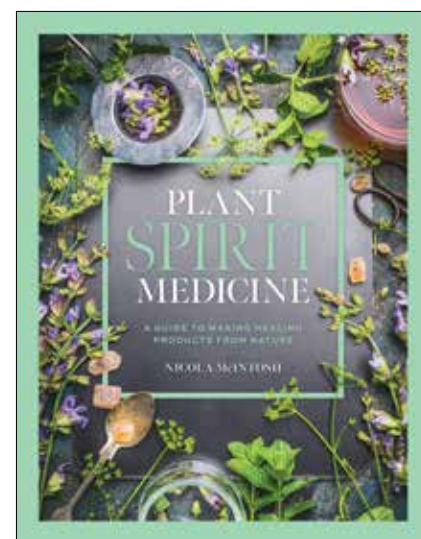

Plant Spirit Medicine is essentially about “listening” to the plant spirits and how to access the healing benefits available through plants.

This book is about reconnecting with nature and the plants in our environment; it's also about learning to listen to the plants and applying what they have to tell us to mend that disconnection. Indigenous peoples from all around the world have worked with plant spirits for thousands of years, and this is how they came to know what specific plants were used for.

In this book, you will learn how to access the medicine available through plants. You will also learn about plant spirit medicine making, from drying herbs to extracting plant properties to infusing oils, as well as how to make ointments, lotions, creams, smudge sticks, and many more herbal products.

About the Author

Nicola McIntosh received a Bachelor of Health Science in Western Herbal Medicine and has completed a Masters of Chinese Herbal Medicine. Bringing together her years of study as well as her practice with Celtic Shamanism, she has brought her passion to life.

A witch-friendly guide to working magic with gemstones and crystals.

Stones contain mysterious, invisible, and powerful characteristics. When correctly understood, they can enable you to create and harness the powerful magic that animates all of life.

This book is a practical and comprehensive guide to the magical world of crystals and gemstones, including both precious and semiprecious stones. Written by a modern witch with firsthand knowledge of the occult properties of stones, Gemstone and Crystal Magic is filled with spells and rituals, folklore, and magical correspondences. It also explores gemstone curses and cures and the ways in which gemstones can be used as amulets, as oracles, and as tools for healing.

With the aid of this book, you will learn how to properly cleanse and charge stones, and also how to make homemade gemstone elixirs. Additionally, you will discover the secrets of using stones to increase your wealth, facilitate clairvoyant abilities, invoke deities, ward off bad luck and evil influences, draw love into your life, and so much more.

This book was previously published as Dunwich's Guide to Gemstone Sorcery: Using Stones for Spells, Amulets, Rituals, and Divination by New Page Books in 2003.

About the Author

Gerina Dunwich is a professional astrologer and occult historian, best known for her books on Wicca and various esoteric subjects. She is also involved in paranormal research and is the founder of the Paranormal Animal Research Group, which investigates cases of alleged hauntings by animal spirits.

Ossman and Steel's Classic Household Guide to Appalachian Folk Healing

A Collection of Old-Time Remedies, Charms, and Spells

Jake Richards

Foreword by Silver Ravenwolf

A long-treasured but forgotten classic of folk healing, with an introduction and commentary by the author of Backwoods Witchcraft and Doctoring the Devil.

Ossman and Steel's Guide to Health or Household Instructor (its original title) is a collection of spells, remedies, and charms. The book draws from the old Pennsylvania Dutch and German powwow healing practices that in turn helped shape Appalachian folk healing, conjuring, root work, and many folk healing traditions in America. Jake Richards puts these remedies in context, with practical advice for modern-day "backwoods" healers interested to use them today.

The first part contains spells and charms for healing wounds, styes, broken bones, maladies, and illnesses of all sorts. The second part includes other folk remedies using ingredients based on sympathetic reasoning, including sulfuric acid, gunpowder, or other substances for swelling, toothache, headache, and so on. These remedies are presented here for historic interest, to help better understand how folk medicine evolved in America.

About the Author

Jake Richards holds his Appalachian heritage close in his blood and bones. He has been a practitioner of Appalachian folk magic for almost a decade and teaches classes on the subject in Jonesborough, Tennessee. Follow him on Instagram at @jake_richards13.

Witness to Roswell, 75th Anniversary Edition

Unmasking the Government's Biggest Cover-Up

Thomas J. Carey and Donald R. Schmitt, authors of UFO Secrets Inside Wright-Patterson

Foreword by Edgar Mitchell; Afterword by George Noory

"When I finished Witness to Roswell, I said to myself, 'Case closed!' for the very wealth and sheer weight of eyewitness testimony." —George Noory, host, Coast to Coast AM

This classic in the field of UFOlogy is filled with hard-hitting eyewitness testimony of one of the most important events of all time: the actual recovery of a UFO outside of Roswell, New Mexico, in 1947.

Witness to Roswell once again provides a "can't put down" written account of what really transpired in Roswell decades ago. It pries loose the truth the government doesn't want us to know, including the revelations of Walter Haut, the US Army Air Force public information officer who issued the later-retracted official press release on the recovery of a "flying disc."

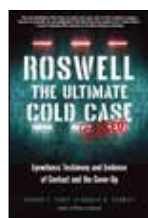

This anniversary edition includes a new introduction by the authors and additional material.

About the Authors

Thomas J. Carey served in the Air Force where he possessed a Top Secret-Crypto clearance. Since the '90s, Tom's research has focused solely on the so-called "Roswell Incident." He resides in Huntingdon Valley, PA.

Donald R. Schmitt is the former codirector of the J. Allen Hynek Center for UFO Studies, where he served as Director of Special Investigations for ten years. Presently, he is on the Board of Directors for the International UFO Research Museum.

Alchemist's Handbook

A Practical Manual

Frater Albertus

New Foreword by Robert Allen Bartlett

A renowned modern-day classic on the actual practice of alchemy.

The Alchemist's Handbook has been an essential contribution to the study of alchemy since its first publication in 1960. It still stands as a groundbreaking work presenting in clear, concise language a practical manual of working knowledge that was formerly handed down under oath of secrecy.

This book discusses in detail the basic fundamental principles of alchemy and offers a guide to the formation of an inexpensive home laboratory with illustrations of the necessary equipment and step-by-step instructions.

This new Weiser Classics edition includes a new foreword by Robert Allen Bartlett, a leading scholar and author of Real Alchemy.

About the Author

Frater Albertus Spagyricus (Dr. Albert Richard Riedel, 1911-1984) was founder of the Paracelsus Research Society in Salt Lake City, which later evolved into Paracelsus College. Frater Albertus had a profound effect on the way alchemy was disseminated and understood in the mid- to late-20th century.

Liber Null and Psychonaut

The Practice of Chaos Magic (Rev. and Expan. Ed.)

Peter J. Carroll

Foreword by Ronald Hutton, author of The Triumph of the Moon: A History of Modern Pagan Witchcraft

"The most original and probably the most important writer on Magick since Aleister Crowley." —Robert Anton Wilson, author of Prometheus Rising

Chaos magic is a union of traditional occult techniques and postmodernist skepticism concerning the existence of objective truth. The practice of chaos magic, outlined here by Peter Carroll, combines methods from shamanism, paganism, and chaos science. The book includes a selection of rituals and exercises for committed occultists with instructions that lead the reader through new concepts and practices.

"Peter Carroll has successfully broken down many of the patterns that so many magicians cling to . . . covers much new territory." —The Portal

This new Weiser Classics edition includes a new foreword by Ronald Hutton.

About the Author

Peter J. Carroll, a highly regarded author, is past Grandmaster of the Magical Pact of the Illuminates of Thanateros, Chancellor of Arcanorium College, Acting Marshall of the Knights of Chaos, and a Bard of Dobunni Grove.

The Magic of the Sword of Moses

A Practical Guide to Its Spells, Amulets, and Ritual

Harold Roth

Foreword by Joseph Peterson, author of The Lesser Key of Solomon

- How to practice ancient pre-Kabbalistic Jewish magic.
- Includes previously unavailable magical spells.
- For readers interested in working with ancient grimoires, hermeticism, angel magic, and occult talismans.

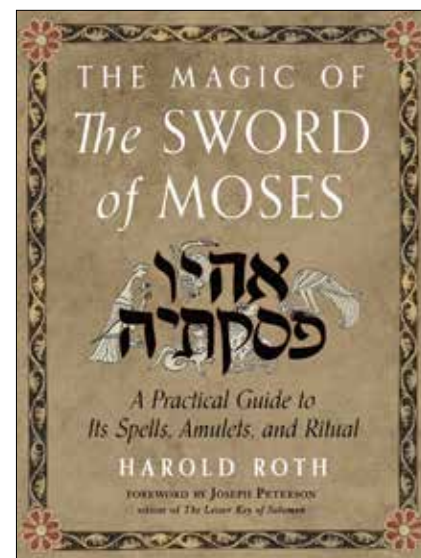

A practical guide to the famed medieval book of pre-Kabbalistic Jewish magic, freshly interpreted and with instructions on how to use the spells.

The Sword of Moses is one of the earliest Jewish magic books, which describes a rite for adjuring angels to assist in controlling and wielding the "Sword of Moses" for magical purposes. The rite involves a short period of purification and then the adjuring of four sets of angels, each higher than the last. These angels in turn give the magician the power to control the Sword through a series of divine names that work as magical spells. The spells, 137 in all, have a wide variety of uses, including healing, harm, love, sex, exorcising demons, divination, and more.

This work was first translated by Moses Gaster in 1896, but he removed many of the spells, making the text unusable for magic. The Magic of the Sword of Moses is the first book to show, in detail, exactly how a magician can use the Sword—how to do the purification ritual, adjure the angels, and pronounce and use the divine names for each spell.

About the Author

No Easy Answers

The Truth behind Death at Columbine (20th Anniversary Edition)

Brooks Brown and Rob Merritt

Twentieth anniversary of the publication that shone an intimate light on the massacre at Columbine High School in Colorado in 1999.

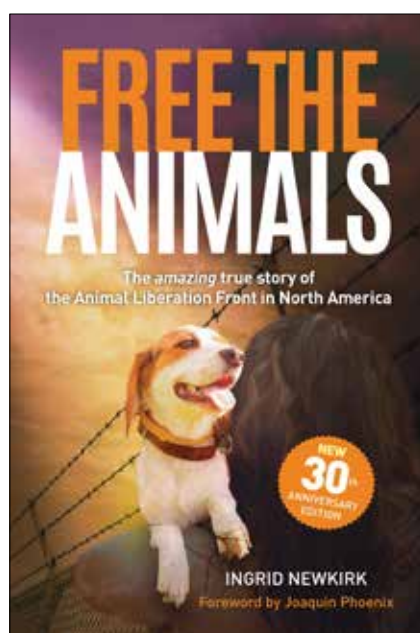

Brooks Brown was a contemporary and friend of the killers. He gives first-hand insight into what happened that day and the toxic culture at Columbine that fed the alienation and hatred expressed by the killers, and disposes of the myths and prejudices that continue to color our reactions to school shootings.

Shocking, as well as inspirational and insightful, No Easy Answers is an authentic wake-up call for all the psychologists, authorities, parents, and law enforcement personnel who have attempted to understand the murders at Columbine High School.

This edition contains a new afterword about the lessons learned or not about Columbine since the publication of the book.

About the Authors

Brooks Brown graduated from Columbine High School in 1999. He consulted on Michael Moore's Academy Award-winning documentary Bowling for Columbine. He lives in Camas, Washington. Rob Merritt, a former journalist, currently lives in Iowa.

Free the Animals

The Amazing True Story of the Animal Liberation Front in North America (30th Anniversary Edition)

Ingrid Newkirk

Foreword by Joaquin Phoenix

The thirtieth-anniversary edition of the classic true-crime thriller of Animal Liberation Front activists in the mid-1980s.

First published in 1992, this thirtieth-anniversary edition is revised, expanded, newly typeset, and has a new foreword. It's the story of "Valerie," a twenty-three-year-old police officer in Montgomery County, Maryland, whose world is turned upside down when she learns about the abuses of animals in laboratories. Full of fascinating characters, vivid descriptions, and thrilling incidents, and rich with details on what it means to live life on the run from the law (and agents provocateurs), Free the Animals is not only a classic for our times but a compellingly relevant examination of our cruelty to other animals.

About the Author

Ingrid E. Newkirk is cofounder and president of PETA (People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals), the largest animal rights organization in the world. Her campaigns to save animals have been featured on The Oprah Winfrey Show and in the Washington Post as well as other national media outlets.

Do Childfree People Have Better Sex?

A Feminist's Journey in the Childfree Movement

Verena Brunschweiler, PhD

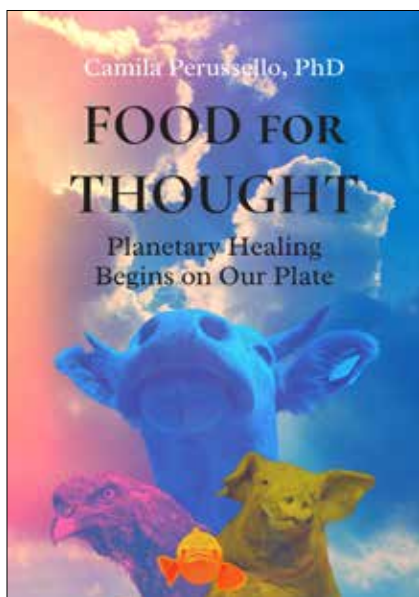

Foreword by Patricia McCormick

A brief book by a well-known activist on the growing child-free movement, its many positive benefits, and the conventional resistance to adopting this lifestyle.

After conveying her own personal story, Brunschweiler expounds with data in hand on the implications of having children or not: the ecological and environmental consequences, feminism, politics, and philosophical disputation. Issues including over-population and the environment, animal welfare, abortion and reproductive rights, sex and happiness, women's health, and politics and anti-natalism are explored. Brunschweiler posits women have the right to be happy and, if they choose, feel comfortable rejecting the societal conventional pressure of having children.

About the Author

Verena Brunschweiler is an author, passionate child-free activist, and feminist. She was born in Passau, Germany, in 1980. She studied German, English, and Philosophy at Regensburg University, receiving her PhD in 2007.

Food for Thought

Planetary Healing Begins on Our Plate

Camila Perussello, PhD

Food for Thought empowers and inspires readers to make informed and healthier choices to create a better world for themselves and our planet.

Food for Thought seeks to enlighten people about their power as individuals to shape industry and society starting from the food they eat. The reader is invited to question who is really benefiting from our present food system through a detailed, science-based analysis of food production and consumption. The author presents an accessible, science-based analysis of animal food production from the perspective of food process engineering. She then provides insightful discussions on the health, ecological, social, and spiritual implications of our diet. This information is supported by powerful photographs taken by Animal Equality's undercover investigators in animal farms worldwide. The author elaborates on the relationship between microbial pathogens (including Covid-19), antibiotic resistance, and the consumption of animal products, rendering this book a timely reading.

Food for Thought also unveils myths on "humane" and "sustainable" animal foods, such as organic milk, grass-fed meat, and cage-free eggs, demonstrating how animal agriculture is the antithesis of compassion and sustainability, regardless of farm size, production system, and geographical region.

Food for Thought is ultimately an invitation to a regenerated society. This book will help vegetarians and omnivores align their actions with their values and live a happier, more fulfilling life. The unprecedented views on food production offered by this compelling reading will also empower vegans in communicating with their non-vegan peers about the importance of following a plant-based lifestyle.

About the Author

Camila Perussello, PhD, is an extensively published Food Engineer. She has worked as a food scientist in different parts of the globe, gathering evidence on the sustainability and ethics involved in animal food production. She is the recipient of several research grants by Brazilian and European governments as well as funding for vegan outreach from California-based The Pollination Project.

Gabriel

How Saving One Calf Changed an Entire Community

Cheryl Moss

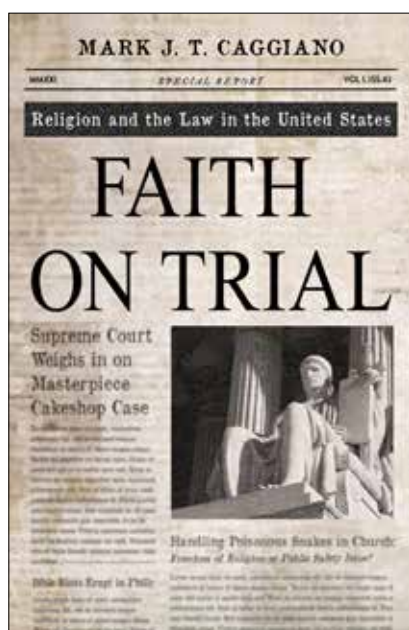

Illustrated by Irene Blasco

The first in a trilogy of children's books telling heartwarming, age-appropriate stories with captivating illustrations, about a young girl Claire, a veal calf Gabriel she rescues, and their journey to change the world we live in.

Gabriel is a beautifully illustrated and engaging story of a young girl named Claire and her rescued veal calf named Gabriel. Claire grew up in a time when people turned off their feelings toward animals and ignored the damage being done to our planet. Mother Nature sent a warning to the adults as the climate changed and a deadly virus engulfed humankind. Our young protagonist Claire takes matters into her own hands, rescuing a veal calf from certain death. Through Claire's journey to save her beloved Gabriel and the planet, our young readers learn about love, compassion, and making good choices. Claire's brave and bold decision teaches and inspires her parents and humanity—captivating young readers and everyone that reads Gabriel.

About the Author and Illustrator

Cheryl Moss believes in creating a children's book series about alternative ways of thinking and living to foster fundamental change. She has written two books, Jenny the Magical Dog Next Door and Jenny Saves the Day. Cheryl is a staunch animal activist and vegan who resides in Las Vegas, Nevada. Irene Blasco is a Spanish illustrator, designer, and painter based in Valencia, Spain.

Faith on Trial

Religion and the Law in the United States

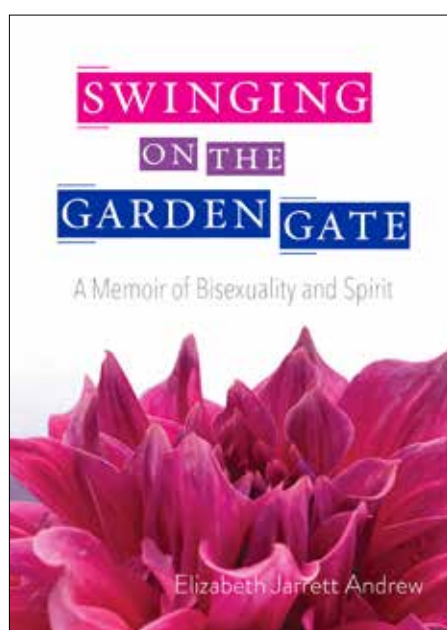

Mark J. T. Caggiano

In Faith on Trial, Mark Caggiano invites religious progressives and moderates to reenter the national conversation about religion and the law, complete with historical context and legal analysis.

Legal scholar and Unitarian Universalist minister Mark J. T. Caggiano argues that concerns about separation of church and state often serve to silence religious viewpoints of people on the Left, many of whom exit the conversation in the hope of protecting important social issues from religious infighting. But it is impossible to win a debate that you never join, and, as Caggiano writes, it is paramount in these times that “religious liberals and progressives cultivate and refine an ability to articulate the need for moral changes within the political system. That goal will require an understanding of the law as well as a moral vision for the world.”

About the Author

Mark J. T. Caggiano currently serves as minister at First Church in Chestnut Hill, MA. He is also an adjunct faculty member at Boston College Law School, teaching First Amendment law concerning matters of religious rights and the separation of church and state.

Swinging on the Garden Gate

A Memoir of Bisexuality and Spirit, Second Edition

Elizabeth Jarrett Andrew

A beautiful and powerful memoir of coming of age and coming out bisexual.

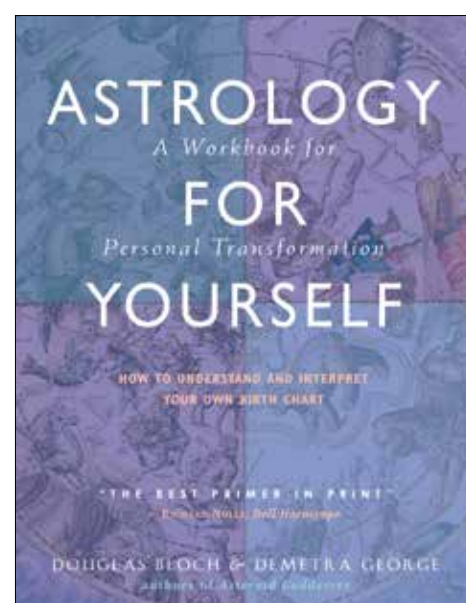

This book describes a period of time in the author's life when she came to know her bisexuality as an embodied manifestation of divinity. Andrew not only reconciles her Methodist faith with her sexuality but realizes that her body is holy, her sexuality is holy, and the word she carried within her has always been holy.

In addition to sharing a personal journey through memory, Andrew brings a distinctly queer feminist lens to Christian teachings and answers the question innumerable young people have posed to her over the years, “Is it possible to be both queer and spiritual?”

This second edition includes a new note from Andrew as she looks back on its twenty-year history.

About the Author

Elizabeth Jarrett Andrew teaches creative writing at Wisdom Ways Center for Spirituality in St. Paul, Minnesota. She is a recipient of a Minneapolis State Arts Board artists' fellowship, the Loft Career Initiative Grant, and a finalist for the Minnesota Book Award.

Employees First!

Inspire, Engage, and Focus on the HEART of Your Organization

Donna Cutting, author of 501 Ways to Roll Out the Red Carpet for Your Customers

Foreword by Jeffrey W. Hayzlett, author of The Hero Factor

The world is changing and it's time to reimagine and reshape your employee experience. Take care of the people who take care of your customers.

Employees First! presents recognition strategies and appreciation techniques, but it goes deeper than that. It shows how giving your team members a voice in your company, supporting them with knowledge and training, and giving them purpose and equitable pay translate into higher productivity and happier customers. Discover what real empowerment is, and why building a diverse culture of inclusion is beneficial to all involved.

"This is your guide on how to create a more inclusive, compassionate, and purposeful culture. If you're serious about putting people first, then you need this book!" —Jacob Morgan, bestselling author of The Future Leader

About the Author

Donna Cutting, CSP, is the author of The Celebrity Experience and 501 Ways to Roll Out the Red Carpet for Your Customers, which was named a top-10 business book of the year by Forbes.com.

Divine Tea Time Inspiration Cards

Rituals and Blends to Soothe Your Soul

Tracy Loughlin

- Perfect gift set of gorgeous, unique hand-painted illustrations of ingredients for the tea enthusiast.
- Every card includes an affirmation and a recipe.

Tea drinking is about how it makes you feel! It can be uplifting, soothing, cleansing, calming, and so much more. Each card includes a beautiful watercolor image, a recipe, and an affirmation to create a delicious ritual for your daily life.

This series of stunning, watercolor cards is designed to provide a gentle and profound experience of tea making while also offering accompanying affirmations to help further enrich your life. It is broken down into four chapters—herb, flower, fruit, spice—each including ten different tea recipes and a beautiful card opener for each section.

The front of each card has a unique tea illustration, and the back includes a simple recipe with a corresponding aspiration. The simple recipes are an excellent starting point for home tea-brewers, and the charming pamphlet works to immerse experienced home tea-brewers with further insight and understanding as to how to infuse herbs, flowers, fruits, and spices.

About the Author

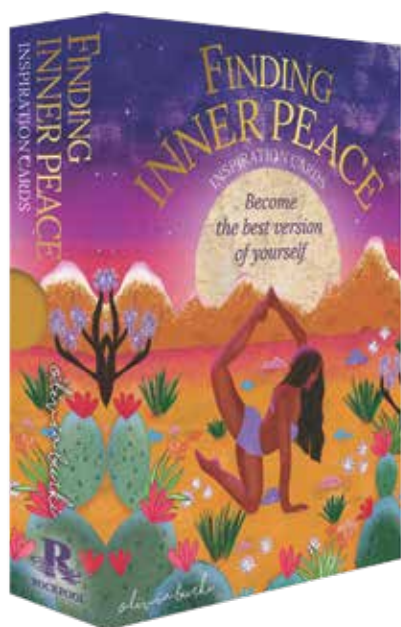

Tracy Loughlin is an illustrator and designer living in Sydney, Australia. She is happiest digging in the garden, being near the water, and drinking tea.

Celtic Spirit Oracle

Ancient Wisdom from the Elementals

Nicola McIntosh

- Sales of Celtic books and oracles are consistently strong across all markets.
- This oracle book-and-card set focuses on Celtic shamanism and Elementals.

The Celtic Spirit Oracle channels the ancient wisdom of the Elemental beings to help aid your spiritual growth and raise the consciousness of humanity.

The Elemental beings and Celtic gods and goddesses represent the energies that work through this deck, and their messages at times are so subtle—like a whisper that gets lost in our noisy way of life. Some people are able to hear their messages if they slow down enough to listen.

This oracle is born from artist/author Nicola McIntosh's Celtic shamanic work and her Celtic lineage. The Celts had a deep understanding of nature's cycles and the importance of working with nature and its Elemental beings, which is evident in their artwork, myths, and legends.

Cosmic C*nt Tarot

Samantha West

- Sam West is an artist and tarot aficionado living in Providence, Rhode Island.
- This unique tarot deck features cards printed with fluorescent ink and foiling.

The *Cosmic C*nt Tarot* is a tongue-in-cheek, fun, pocket-sized tarot deck designed for the alien-loving reader.

Full of alien probes, ray guns, test tubes, and UFOs, this deck follows the traditional seventy-eight-card structure, with some small, mischievous changes. The suits have been swapped out to include ray guns, specimens, disks, and probes.

In case it's not abundantly obvious, this deck is not for the faint of heart. If you clutch your pearls at the sight of aliens wielding phallic probes, this may not be the deck for you.

About the Author

Samantha West was born and raised in New Jersey and now lives in Providence, RI. She created her first tarot deck in 2018 and is now a full-time illustrator who teaches a course on tarot deck creation. When she isn't drawing, she can be found knitting or making candles with her husband and baby girl. Sam is also the creator of The Macabre Tarot and The Rainbow Moon Tarot. The Macabre Tarot

- A truly unique design—a tarot deck in the shape of a coffin!

The Macabre Tarot tempts you to turn away from the light and embrace the dark. While following the traditional tarot structure, the deck takes a look at the darker sides of the cards and implores you to embrace all the spooky things that lurk in the shadows. This unique deck is based on the traditional Rider-Waite system but with crystals, cups, bones, and daggers as the four suits. The cards have gilded edges and a palette of black, white, and gold.

Aboriginal Ancestral Wisdom Oracle

Mel Brown

The Australian Aboriginal culture is the oldest living culture in the world and this deck calls upon its sacred spiritual knowledge.

Aboriginal Ancestral Wisdom Oracle provides insight from four different environments:

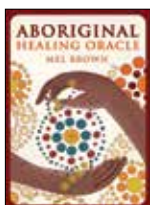

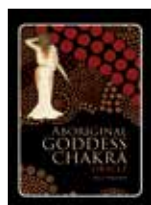

- › Freshwater Wisdom represents our journey to seek clarity.
- › Saltwater Wisdom represents our journey to the deepest depths of our wisdom.
- › Desert Wisdom represents our knowledge that is hidden in plain sight.
- › Rainforest Wisdom represents our ability to hide in the background while we assess our environment and ponder our next move.

Exploring the same situation from different viewpoints, the light messages are confirmation that we are on the right path and offer words of wisdom and encouragement to continue on the journey, whereas the dark messages prompt us to consider things differently and explore other ways in which we could attain an alternative outcome.

About the Author

Mel Brown is a professional speaker, author, and artist. She has a Masters in Indigenous Healing and Trauma from Southern Cross University in Lismore, New South Wales, Australia.

The Moon Oracle

Let the Phases of the Moon Guide Your Life

Caroline Smith and John Astrop

Let the wisdom of the moon guide you in all your life's decisions.

This easy-to-use divination system and practical introduction to lunar astrology allows you to align your life to the fluctuating rhythms of the Moon and do in-depth, multilayered readings using a combination of lunar cards.

The deck includes seventy-two illustrated oracle cards featuring dramatic figurative and symbolic imagery, representing the eight phases of the Moon (in each of the four astrological elements), twelve Moon goddesses, and twenty-eight Moon mansions. Consult the Moon tables in the book to pinpoint the exact phase of the Moon and astrological sign it appears in to shed light on the present state of your question, then refer to the suggested reading methods and detailed card interpretations for guidance on the best way to proceed.

This oracle deck was previously published by Eddison Books. It is being republished with a new cover design.

About the Authors

Caroline Smith is an internationally renowned artist whose work features recurring goddess imagery. Together with her late husband, leading astrologer and author John Astrop, she created several powerful divination systems showcasing her symbolic and bold style. Her paintings hang in collections around the world.

Crystal Flashcards

Jessica Lahoud

Crystal Flashcards is packed with information. On each card, you will find a list of the metaphysical properties of each stone along with a set of symbols to identify other interesting and useful facts about each crystal. Using these symbols, you can explore which of the Chakras and elements every crystal is associated with. In a rich and colorful display, every crystal is photographed in its most common form so that you can clearly and easily identify your own stones.

About the Author

Jessica Lahoud is an author, artist, and co-owner of Australia's iconic crystal store—Mineralism. She is based in Sydney, but travels in all parts of the world, sourcing rare, beautiful, and unusual crystals.

Essential Oil Cards

The Everyone Edition

Hallie Marie

Each card features the name of the essential oil and a pithy saying to help you on the front. The back of the card lists three to four benefits of each oil and symbols to easily show how you can use the oils, along with a list of other oils that blend and diffuse well with the featured oil.

About the Author

Hallie Marie is a writer, marketer, and natural health enthusiast. She cofounded the company Everything But Oils (LLC) to teach people how to effectively master the use of essential oils. She lives in Chicago.

The Oracle of Ur Penny Barron

In ancient Sumer in 3800 BC, indentured and forced into prostitution to survive, a reluctant seer known only as Girl finds herself experiencing cataclysmic visions. Kaylem, most junior scribe of the Temple and her one, true friend, realizes Girl is the mouthpiece of the gods and is the only one to believe her. Somehow, Girl and Kaylem must convince the corrupt priestcraft of Ur to heed Girl's message from the gods and bring her warning to the people. Otherwise, what is the point of knowing, if nobody will listen?
