Lessons from the Empress

A Tarot Workbook for Self-Care and Creative Growth

Cassandra Snow and Siri Vincent Plouff; Foreword by Lisa Marie Basile, author of The Magical Grimoire

978-1-57863-793-5, 6 x 9, 224 pp., Tarot card images, Paperback
$16.95 (CAD $23.95)

Available October

- Reveals the Empress, rather than the Fool, as the tarot metaphor for the journey toward self-care
- For the growing audience interested in magic and tarot for self-care

A hands-on workbook for using tarot to discover and express your authentic self—the foundation of true self-care.

Using the Empress (a symbol of creation and abundance) as a guide, Lessons from the Empress takes readers on a journey through the tarot using easy-to-follow magical rituals, tarot spreads, and creativity exercises in a way that will empower the reader to embrace, accept and express their authentic self. The journey through the tarot will take the reader through phases of self-care: Major Arcana—spiritual self-care; the Wands—self-awareness; the Swords—self-expression; the Cups—self-love; the Pentacles—self-confidence. Though this book is not specifically targeted to LGBTQ+ and other marginalized communities, it is strongly inclusive.

About the Authors Cassandra Snow is the two-time Weiser author of Queering the Tarot and Queering Your Craft and whose work includes teaching and writing about tarot and witchcraft as well as doing readings. Siri Vincent Plouff is the brain behind the radical Heathenry podcast, Heathen's Journey.

When Cassandra was getting their theatre degree, their professors really hammered home the right way to read a play as a theater artist:

- You read it once just to read it, just to see what it is and what it has to offer.
- You read it a second time to read for your role (which includes reading it with director, producer, marketing, or tech designer eyes).
- You read it a third time to get specific about your role, look for the details, manner, and creative sparks you may have missed.
- Then you read it one more time before you begin making plans. In this reading, you're letting your own ideas and notes take shape. You're visualizing as you read, watching the play come to life in your mind.

For the purposes of Lessons from the Empress, this isn't a bad approach to reading a tarot spread. Read through it a few different times, ensuring that you're seeing your role in the reading spring to life, watching as the reading takes shape with visuals and ideas.

traditional farming methods. It leads to larger crop losses, and higher instances of 'ugly' fruit that's hard to sell. The farmers aren't using the chemicals that are on the banned list, but problematic fruits and vegetables may still need some interventions on the behalf of the farmer, fruits like apples are common with the issues they have. All of these factors come into play when pricing your materials. When deciding what is best for you (and your family) take these costs into account.

If you cannot afford to eat organic regularly, what is the best use of your time and prosperity? Due to bioaccumulation in the food cycle, if you can't afford organic fruits and veggies, the best option is organic dairy and meats if you consume them. Picture a cow, a happy mama cow just living her cow life. If you eat organic fruit and vegetables, great. If you feed those organic fruits to a cow, the cow isn't eating the corn or other materials that could be laden with unknown chemical materials. Now, the longer the cow lives, the more it eats. Those materials are being stored in the muscles, and are excreted from the body through breast milk production. To produce milk, whether to feed baby cows, or to make into dairy products like milk, cream and butter, that cow is milked. But one of the first things to happen is the concentration of foods that are consumed to help create that milk. If the cow is fed an organic diet, great. Nothing 'extra' goes into the milk, cream, or butter. But if it is fed a traditional diet, the more it eats, the more built up that's potentially expressed into the milk, cream, or butter.

Potions as Daily Care

Why Self Care? It's easier than you think, easy to overlook as well. Often, animists, or magical workers, we can't effort making sure that everyone around that we can forget to eat, drink, sleep rest are to different things, make sure on the Magic of Rest for more under.

One of the first things that people at pushing themselves too hard or by capacity to engage in self care is they at It's vital to life in these organic machine how much coffee (a mild diuretic and ting, it isn't water. So let's start with the daughter of a Navy man, I've heard all excuses for not drinking it, it's still vital planet is a closed system, every drop, existed still does. Whether it evaporate as best we can. Once they are mixed well, sprinkle the mixture in a line from the white candle on the left to the red candle on the right. Put a little arrow on the end of that line to drive the energy towards love. When it is time to light the candles, picture the emotions you have overcome to make room for a new person in your loving relationships. The white candle signifies those past behaviors and feelings of loss, jealousy, fear, depression etc. that you overcame. The pink candle represents the ability of the witch (you) to understand and embrace the love they have for themselves. Moving lastly to the red for blossoming love and understanding with a new potential partner. We are growing and moving through our lives as loving adults. There are some (toxic) adages about 'not being able to love anyone if you don't love yourself'. Please understand that this couldn't be further from the truth, we all deserve love. That has nothing to do with your ability to recognize our feelings directed at ourselves. You're an incredible person, I can't wait to see what you do with this life.

LUCK: charge a cup of strong linden tea under the full moon or on a Friday to asperse (sprinkle) around your home to draw in luck. Some people choose to use a conifer branch as their asperger, some just use their hands. It's up to you. Draw that luck in! Feel free to add cloves to the infusion as they bring luck into the home.

MARRIAGE: bless and anoint a mirror with linden water before using the trance: breath to enter sacred space/trance. Once in a magical state of mind, light a candle (any color) and set it in front of the mirror you blessed. Look at the reflection of the candle flame (not the candle itself) and allow your eyes to lose focus. You want to be looking through the reflection of the candle flame. See in your mind's eye ("if you can) a small doorway coming out of the flame in the reflection. When the door opens you'll see the face of the person you're intended to marry in the open doorway. When you have the information you need, thank the spirits, snuff out the candle and go about your night.

Linden tea pairs well with: holy basil, peppermint, rooibos, chamomile, and jasmine green tea.

Bear Hug Healing

For stress reduction, alleviate symptoms of seasonal depression, and migraines

1 tsp. Linden (Tilia spp.) - antianxiety
1 tsp. Holy Basil (Ocimum tenuiflorum) - exhilarant

1 tsp. Rooibos (Aspalathus linearis) vanilla suggested - determination

Make sure you grab a steeping vessel with a lid, linden is very fragrant, we want to keep all that beautiful volatile oil in the tea to give it flavor. Without a lid all that flavor is evaporating. Boil 16 oz. water to 212° and steep the tea for 5-10 minutes. I find a little sweetener goes a long way with this tea. Take note, linden and holy basil may cause increased sweating.

Nettle Nellies

A vitamin supplement in a cup, relieves seasonal allergy symptoms

1 tsp. Nettle (Urtica dioica) - nutritive, kidney support
1 tsp. Peppermint (Mentha piperita) - anti-inflammatory

This cooling herbal infusion is a relaxing blend that will sneak up on you with the care and attention it shows you.

Listening to the Magic in the Land

Britton Boyd

978-1-950253-31-9, 5.25 x 8, 192 pp., Paperback, $18.99 (CAD $26.99),

- Offers activities, spells, and rituals to foster a practical attunement to the cyclical nature of the living earth

In every moment, the land is speaking—reaching out to invite you back into an ancient relationship, back into a world peopled with spirits and brimming with magic. It is calling you to the gritty, grounded path of the Earth Witch.

In Earth Witch: Finding the Magic in the Land, witch, herbalist, and teacher Britton Boyd shares the lessons and powerful practices of an organic spirituality rooted in the natural world. This is witchcraft raw and real, unfettered by the bounds of spiritual capitalism; this is the witchcraft found in thrift stores and free boxes on the side of street...traded, bartered, lost, and found again. In the ceaseless ebb and flow, this is a spiral journey into the heart of the living landscape.

Enriched with stories, spells, and rituals, Earth Witch is an invitation into radical transformation in service to the planet we call home. Open the invitation. Read the book. Heed the call.

About the Author Britton Boyd is an animist, witch, writer, tarot reader, potion maker, and herbalist residing in the high desert mountains of Northeastern Oregon. In 2017 she hiked the entirety of the Pacific Crest Trail, an experience that made beautifully and agonizingly concrete the wisdom of earth-based, animistic witchcraft.
