When it comes to cartomancy, Jess often likes to focus on the more mundane, day-to-day aspects of life and the situations we find ourselves in, rather than focus on the mystical or spiritual.

Jess is located in the Arizona White Mountains with her husband and daughter, along with two dogs, a cat, and seven hens. When she's not reading cards or illustrating them, she is often found hiking local trails, digging in the garden, or drinking copious amounts of iced coffee. The Sirens' Song

Divining the Depths with Lenormand & Kipper Cards

Carrie Paris and Tony Savory; Contribution by Tina Hardt

978-1-57863-806-2, 5.25 x 7.25, 144 pp., 78 Full-color cards and guidebook, Kit, $34.95 (CAD $47.95), Available August

- A special gift for lovers of the ocean and collectors of oracle cards
- Two oracle decks in one package

A fantastical deep-sea world awaits us in this unique set of two oracular decks that can be used individually or combined to create a truly unique reading experience.

This divination kit contains two oracles: a Kipper and a Lenormand. When used together, they provide the highest, fullest degree of possible interpretation. Unlike tarot and oracle decks, which are read intuitively, Lenormand cards are read metaphorically, and Kipper cards are read quite literally. Lenormand deals with the outer world, and Kipper deals with the interpersonal.

The most common way to read Lenormand and Kipper is to treat the card meanings as words and read them in order. There can be a certain amount of intuition in how you approach the card meanings, but they have set meanings. The Kipper deck is aimed at the everyday realities of people's lives, and it reflects both the highest and the lowest possibilities those lives can contain. It depicts people, societal roles, and personal states of being.

These beautiful decks invite us into a world inhabited by iridescent characters who lend their magic, myth (and tentacles) to every oracle reading. The result is as seductive and eternal as the legendary sirens' song.

About the Creators Carrie Paris has a passion for divination and ancient ceremonial rites that invoke the spirit of divining communities. Carrie enjoys dividing her life by teaching annually in California, Santa Fe, and Europe. She lives in Portland, Oregon, and is the creator of The Relative Tarot. Toni Savory has studied and researched the traditional systems of Lenormand, Kipper, and Gypsy cards in England, France, and Germany. - The aesthetic sensibility of this tarot deck is both vintage and modern
- Artist and author are very well connected and positioned to drive sales and media hits

"I love the fresh, bold style of The Rosebud Tarot, the renaming of many of the Majors (High Priestess is the Witch, Empress is Lifegiver, Hierophant is the Professor, etc.), and how the court cards have been transformed into four tiers of energies (Curiosity, Velocity, Generosity, Sovereignty). The Rosebud Tarot is sure to appeal to the up-and-coming generation of tarot readers." —Benebell Wen, author of The Holistic Tarot

The Rosebud Tarot features exquisite images that offer a dreamscape of pathways into the tarot and makes way for an inclusive experience that is more resonant for today's tarot readers. Also provided is a brief history of the tarot and other information and resources to support further tarot studies.

New!Heal the Witch WoundReclaim Your Magic and Step Into Your Power

Celeste Larsen

978-1-57863-798-0, 6 x 8, 208 pp., Paperback, $16.95 (CAD $23.95), Available April

- While interest in witchcraft and related disciplines is increasingly popular, there is still stigma felt by modern witches; this book is the Rx for "getting out of the broom closet"
- Matte laminated cover with spot gloss on the black title

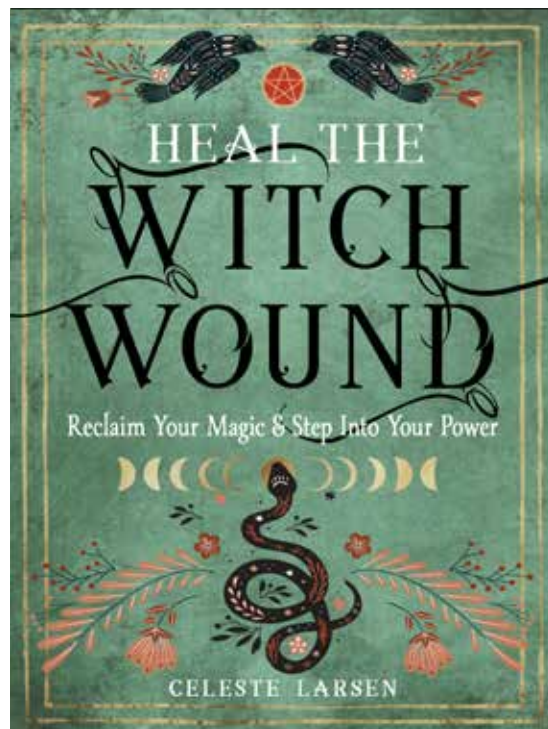

A practical guide for modern witches and healers that includes rituals, journal prompts, visualization exercises, and other tools.

The "witch wound" is a collective, intergenerational, psychic wound that has scarred marginalized people, mostly women, for centuries. The roots of this wound run deep, going back to the horrors of the historical witch hunts. Today, though not true everywhere, witchcraft is embraced as a tool for self-empowerment and healing; yet the scars of the "Burning Times" remain. Many would-be witches turn away from the craft out of fear that they will be judged, shamed, or rejected by the people around them. This is the witch wound at work.

Author Celeste Larsen guides modern witches on the path of healing the witch wound. To do so, she travels back to the Burning Times to demystify this dark era in history. She then explores the most common signs and symptoms of the witch wound as felt today, such as fear of speaking up and being seen, hiding spiritual gifts, feeling disconnected from the divine, past-life memories, and more.

The book ends by leading us into a bright and brilliant future, offering an abundance of practices (both magical and mundane) to help readers heal the witch wound and reclaim their power.

About the Author Celeste Larsen is a pagan, witch, ritualist, and owner of Mage by Moonlight. She studied marketing at Clemson University and has spent the past seven years creating digital content for a range of small to midsize businesses. Originally from Texas, she currently lives in Cork, Ireland, and writes for brands like Ghirardelli and the Republic of Tea.

T. Suzuki, Rudolf Steiner, and Matthew Fox—all crediting Eckhart as being an important influence on their thinking.

The vibrant renderings of his writings, in poetic form in this new collection, bring to life one of the greatest spiritual voices. Meister's words reveal what it means to love God and find meaning in darkness. Not darkness in general but your darkness, because without facing your darkness, you'll never know what it means to desire the light. Only when you are in the darkness, Meister says, do you have even the possibility of seeing the light.

About the Authors Meister Eckhart (1260–1328) was a priest, a mystic, and nearly a heretic (he died before the Church court's verdict). Jon M. Sweeney is an independent scholar, critic, and writer. He lives in Milwaukee, WI. Mark S. Burrows is a poet, translator, and professor of religion and literature at the Protestant University of Applied Sciences in Bochum, Germany.
